NEW YORK, June 28, 1871.

VALIDITY OF THE INCOME TAX.

The argument on the application of Daniel C. Robbins, for an injunction to restrain Collector Freedland from collecting income tax amounting to five hundred and sixty-six dollars, for which the plaintiff has been assessed, was heard yesterday, before Judge Benedict, in the United States Eastern District Court. The Judge denied the motion for an injunction, thus establishing the validity of the income tax.

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN.

The Methodist Book Concern Committee held their closing meeting yesterday, adjourning in the afternoon sine die. In a very brief letter Dr. Carlton tendered his resignation to the Committee, to take effect immediately, stating that he would hereafter show his reasons for the act to the Committee and the Church. The Committee unanimously declined to accept it, however, and adopted resolutions expressive of their confidence in the ability, integrity and faithfulness of Dr. Carlton, and endorsing him as a Christian gentleman whose character is above reproach. Bishop Ames publishes his decision in which he says that Bishop Janes and he agree in judgment touching the law which governs book agents in the discharge of their official duties, but on the question of the unrestricted right of the assistant agent to examine all books and accounts of the concern there had arisen a conflict of authority. It seems, he says, from examination, the assistant agent had not been permitted to exercise this right, and he applied to the courts for aid that he might secure it. Such an act must be judged of in the light of its surroundings. He so judges of this, and so judging, does not feel justified in visiting upon it so severe a penalty as that inflicted by the Committee. The Bishop then in conclusion says to the Committee that he thinks the penalty inflicted by their verdict appears to him to be more severe than the gravity and importance of the complaints justify, and as he finds himself at variance with their judgment his duty compels him to say that he cannot and does not concur in the verdict removing Rev. John Lanahan from the office of Assistant Book Agent of the Book Concern, of New York. Bishop Janes goes at length into the reasons for his decision, and concludes as follows: "My confidence in Dr. Lanahan as a Christian brother and a minister of the Lord Jesus Christ is unshaken, and my affection for him undisturbed. The decision refers only to his official act as Assistant Agent of the Book Concern. His act suing out a writ of mandamus at the time and in the manner that he did I cannot approve, but the question whether the error is sufficient to remove him from office. I cannot decide without heitancy, for on this one point my mind has wavered up to this moment. I hereby concur. The action of the Bishops is final in this matter, and Dr. Lanahan cannot now be again tried on these charges until the assembling of the General Conference in May, 1872, in which the supreme authority of the Church resides. This Conference is composed of the representatives, lay and clerical, of 1,870 effective preachers, who constitute the seventy-two Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church of America. The elections to this body have just commenced, the last Maine Conference having already chosen their delegates on the 31st of May. The elections will continue to drop in from this time until the end of next April. The case of Dr. Lanahan is expected to form one of the chief issues before the next Conference, and it will be a great issue in all the elections, so that the present action of Bishop Ames tends to draw not only the General Conference, but the whole Church, into active controversy on the Book Concern troubles. Interest in the matter is becoming mighty, and will no doubt bring about at last a full and fair investigation of the much-discussed Book Concern frauds."

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

A special from Augusta last night says, another terrible accident occurred on the Maine Central railroad yesterday afternoon, by a collision one mile and a half below Hallowell, between the local train of small engine and passenger cars which left Gardiner on regular time, soon after five o'clock, and the mixed train, so-called which usually leaves Augusta for Portland at 4:30. This train was delayed until five o'clock at Augusta in order to accommodate the delegates to the Democratic State Convention, who were returning to their homes. The train was crowded with passengers. It consisted of an engine, freight, smoking and three passenger cars. According to the rules of the road this train should have waited at Hallowell, but it did not. There was a sharp curve at this point where the locomotives met. A person in a field near by saw the approaching trains and attempted to signal them, but without success. The shock was terrific, and the engines were wholly demolished. There was a steep embankment at the point where the trains met, and there would have been a terrible loss of life if the cars had been thrown over, but fortunately they were not, although a freight car on the down train was wrecked. The seats in the passenger car were torn from their fastenings. There were a dozen passengers on board, half of whom were jammed and otherwise injured. Daniel Berry, engineer of the mixed train, was killed, and Wilkes Carvil, fireman, had his skull fractured and severely cut and scalded. He will not live.

GERMAN PROCESSION.

The grand fest procession of vocal organizations, in which several Schutzen organizations participated, together with a review by the Governor and Mayor and a pic-nic at Jones' Wood, took place yesterday. The streets along the line of march were thronged with people, and flags and decorations were displayed from numerous public buildings and private houses. At about eleven o'clock the procession arrived at Steinway Hall. On the pavement of Fourteenth street a platform occupied the whole frontage of Steinway Hall, richly covered with cloth, the German national colors and canopied by American and German flags. Above this platform was a spacious balcony similarly decorated for the use of ladies and distinguished guests. The facade of the building was profusely decorated. Before the procession reached the hall rain commenced falling and the crowd which had collected in front of the building began to disperse. The speaking was postponed but the procession resumed the line of march, passing in review before the Governor and Mayor, who stood upon the platform which had been erected in front of Steinway Hall. Numerous flags and banners were carried and the whole affair had much the same appearance as had the great German peace procession. The pic-nic at Jones' Woods will be continued.

FIRE.

A fire broke out this morning in the four story brick building used for manufacturing purposes, at the corner of First and North Third streets, Williamsburg. The building and contents were destroyed. The building was owned by Henry G. Richardson. The first floor was occupied by C. W. Kennedy & Co., manufacturers of machinery; second floor unoccupied; third floor occupied by Mott & Abbons, silk manufactory; loss $10,000. Fourth floor occupied by John Ashley, manufacturer of press feeders, loss on stock and machinery $7,000; insurance not ascertained.

DULL MARKETS.

An extreme dullness prevailed in all the markets yesterday, and the volume of business transacted in the commercial circles was very limited. Wall street was particularly tame. The market for gold is spiritless. The disbursements of July interest commenced Monday amounting up to the close of business yesterday to $5,339,000, having apparently been discounted. On the gold loans rates at one and two per cent. for carrying, and for borrowing flat at one, two and three per cent. for that to-day.

GOVERNMENT BONDS.

The Treasury will buy a million of Government bonds, encouraged by the strong feeling in the entire list last evening. The improved demand, both foreign and domestic, is stimulating higher prices, the market closing at the best figures of to-day.

Sheridan Made LL.D.

CHICAGO, June 28.—At the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Northwestern University, held at Evanston yesterday, the degree of LL.D. was conferred upon Lieutenant General Philip Sheridan.

ROCK ISLAND STOCK.

In reply to the recent surmises of the Buffalo Commercial Advertizer, that the recent misunderstanding relative to the Rock Island stock was brought about by the publication of an apparent official statement that a stock dividend of one hundred per cent. would soon be declared, the Tribune of this morning says: The Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad is a corporation created originally by the laws of Illinois. It has received no authority from the Legislature of Illinois to declare a dividend of one hundred per cent or any other amount, and the Legislature is prohibited by the Constitution from granting any such authority. These facts ought to be known to the dullest intellect in Wall street. The bonded debt of the Rock Island Railroad, amounting to nine millions of dollars, might be converted into stock if the Legislature should authorize such a proceeding. This debt represents capital actually invested in the road, and it would be permissible under the Constitution of Illinois to pass a law authorizing an increase of the capital stock of the road, to stand in place of debt, when the latter is actually extinguished, but it would not be permissible to water the stock to the extent of one dime. Anybody who bets his money on a watering operation in an Illinois railroad will be likely to lose it.

FOUND DEAD.

This morning a young German lady named Vonbillow was found dead in her bed at 264 Harrison street. Last night she undertook to kill herself with a dagger, but was prevented by some persons in the house. She then went to bed and swallowed a heavy dose of morphine. Deceased came to this city a short time since with a young man from Columbus, Ohio, where she had been a school teacher for a long time. She had a mania for the stage, and she came here expecting an engagement at the Globe Theatre, but was disappointed. She was thorougly stage-struck, and was continually quoting from Shakespeare, Schiller, etc. She was evidently a highly educated and refined young lady. Her age was about twenty-one years and she was quite attractive in appearance.

CRAZY.

Charles G. Jacobs, who a few days since, accused himself of murdering a man in Bryan, Texas, and delivered himself into the custody of the police, it is ascertained, is laboring under a hallucination. A dispatch has been received from the Chief of Police at Bryan, saying that no such occurrence as Jacobs describes has taken place there. The prisoner, it is ascertained, has played the same game on previous occasions. He has been discharged from custody.

THE JEWISH CASE.

The case of Rabbi Herseman and Dr. B. P Reynolds against Mr. Wilkins, wherein they sued defendant on a claim for ninety-five dollars for circumcising, baptizing and re-marrying him according to the Jewish rites, was to-day settled without coming to trial by the defendant paying twenty dollars.

WILL PROVE FATAL.

The injuries received by the Hon. H. G. C Bullis, Republican nominee for Governor of Iowa, by being thrown from his carriage a few days since, are pretty certain to prove fatal. At last accounts he was very low.

MEMPHIS.

Supreme Court.

MEMPHIS, June 28.—The decision of the Supreme Court, declaring the warrants issued by the County Commissioners void, on the ground of unconstitutionality, creates great excitement here. It is believed the amount issued will reach a million and a quarter dollars, among which three hundred thousand, issued to the Mississippi Railroad, is now held by McCombs & Co.

A large number of citizens of Mississippi are on trial to-day at Oxford, on a charge of being Ku-Klux, before the United States Court.

CROPS.

The Little Rock, Arkansas, Gazette, in its crop reports, has cheering news from Pulaski, Hempsted, Woodruff, Sebastian, Cross, Ouachita and Conroy counties. As to cotton and corn, it estimates the acreage as one-third less than last year.

INTERESTING CASES.

The Avalanche Oxford, Mississippi, special says the first important case under the enforcement or Ku-klux bill is now on trial here in the United States District Court. No less than twenty-eight names figure in the indictment, all being residents for many years of Monroe county, ranging in years from eighteen to sixty. The indictment charges defendants, while in disguise, with forcibly taking a negro, named Alex. Page, from his house near Aberdeen at midnight on the 29th of March, and hanging him by the neck till he was dead. The trial opened last Friday on a petition for a writ of habeas corpus, which was granted, and yesterday was set for the hearing, which was occupied with preliminaries. To-day the case commenced in earnest. A large number of witnesses were examined. The defense rely chiefly on an alibi and previous good character. They present a respectable appearance, and are guarded to and from the Court, which is presided over by Judge R. A. Hill, by a detachment of the Sixteenth United States Infantry sent from Nashville who mount guard at the Court House door all day. The trial excites the greatest interest and will probably last several days. The wife of one of the defendants was admitted to testify in behalf of her husband to-day. The following are counsel for the Government: Colonel J. W. Wells, District Attorney of the Northern district; E. P. Jacobson, Attorney of the Southern district; H. C. Blackman; H. W. Walter, Van H. Manning, of Holly Springs, and G. P. Turner, Water Valley. For the defense: W. F. Dowd, R. E. Howston Reynolds, General S. G. Halson; J. D. McCluskey and E. O. Sykes, of Aberdeen.

A Cabinet Meeting.

THE COREAN DIFFICULTY.

WASHINGTON, June 28, 1871.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

It is the custom at some lake ports of the United States for captains of excursion steamers to make pleasure trips to Canadian ports, carrying no freight, or passengers who remain, and they have claimed that they are not liable under such circumstances to pay tonnage duties assessed on vessels engaged in foreign trade. The Secretary of the Treasury, to whom the question was referred, has decided that these dues must be paid.

THE COREAN DIFFICULTY.

The following was received at the Navy Department this afternoon:

COREA, June 23, 1871.

To the Secretary of the Navy:

The Coreans not apologizing for their treacherous attack on the 10th, we landed at Kang Noe, and took and destroyed the lower fort and munitions. On the 11th we took another fort and then stormed and captured the stronghold. Five forts have been taken. The troops which defended them are reported as numbering 11,000. There was desperate hand to hand fighting in the citadel. The ordnance was destroyed—481 pieces—principally small brass pieces. Very many small arms and fifty flags were taken. We counted 243 dead Coreans around the citadel. We had three killed. They were the gallant Lieutenant McKee, who was first inside the citadel, killed with a bullet and spear, Marine Dennis Harnahan and Landsman Seth Allen. Our nine wounded are all out of danger and doing well.

[Signed] JNO. RODGERS,
Commander U. S. Navy.

THE FISHERIES.

It is understood that Sir Edward Taornton, the British Minister, has informed the Secretary of State that as far as the action of her Majesty's naval officers or those of the Canadian Government are concerned there is no cause for any fear by citizens of the United States engaged in the fisheries in the neighborhood of the British provinces so long as they do not disregard the laws upon the subject still in force. That the tenor of the instructions issued to those officers both by her Majesty's Government and that of the Dominion are of the most liberal nature. That though they continue to hold the opinion that under the treaty of 1818, U. S. fishermen are prohibited from frequenting colonial ports and harbors for any other purpose than for shelter, repairing damages, purchasing wood and obtaining water, such prohibition will not be enforced during the present season and they will be allowed to enter Canadian ports for the purpose of trade and transhipping fish and procuring supplies. That they will not be prevented from fishing outside the three mile limit within the bays, mouths of which are more than six miles wide. Sir Edward Thornton instructed by his government expresses the hope however that the United States will on their part contribute to the prevention of untimely collisions by refraining from encroaching for the purpose of fishing upon those waters from which by the treaty of 1818 and by the laws of Great Britain and Canada they are excluded until legislation for insuring to them the privileges and immunities agreed upon by the treaty of the 8th of May 1871 shall have been carried out.

INDIAN MURDERERS.

Indian Agent Tatum, of Fort Sill reservation wrote General Sherman on May 29th, that he had no doubt Santanak and Big Tree, Kiowa Chiefs then in custody for killing seven white men in Texas have been guilty of murder in the first degree and should be sent to Texas and not allowed to regain their freedom, but be continue to permit me to urge independant of my conscientious views against capital punishment, as a matter of policy it would be best for the people of Texas that they be not executed for some time and probably not at all for the reason that if they are kept prisoners the Indians will hope them to be released, and thus we have a restraining influence on their actions; but if they are executed the Kiowas will be very likely to seek revenge in wholesale murder of white people. Please convey my views and wishes as above expressed to the proper officers in Texas, in whose charge the Indian pension will be placed. This letter was endorsed by General Sherman the same day as follows:

FORT SILL, May 29.—Respectfully furnished to General Grierson, Post Commander, who will deliver the within named prisoners to any officer who may be sent from Texas to receive them with a copy of this paper and endorsement that due respect be paid to the wishes of the Indian Agent till orders of the President are received.

WEATHER.

The barometer has fallen decidedly on the Pacific coast with increasing temperature and it has also fallen at the Rocky Mountain stations and in the lower Mississippi Valley. The area of low pressure which existed on Tuesday evening in Upper Canada has extended eastward to the Bay of Fundy and the pressure has fallen southward to Key West. The temperature has fallen from the Ohio Valley westward and risen in the Southern States. The brisk winds anticipated for the lower lakes have not extended further than Lake St. Clair. Fresh winds from the southeast and southwest, with threatening weather, have prevailed on the east Atlantic during the day. Fresh northwesterly winds are now reported from Lake Ontario to Lake Michigan. Light local winds have been experienced in Pennsylvania, Missouri, and Arkansas.

Probabilities—Fresh northwesterly winds are probable north and east of Ohio for to-night with clearing up weather Thursday afternoon. Partially cloudy and clear weather are probable for Thursday on the upper lakes and in the Southern States. Light local rains are probable for to-night in northern Mississippi and Tennessee.

RESIGNED.

Horace Capron, Commissioner of Agriculture, to-day tendered the President his resignation, which takes effect the first of August. This is in accordance with a contract entered into two months ago with the Japanese Government through the commission sent to this country for the purpose of introducing and developing in that kingdom the industrial ideas of the United States. Capron is empowered to procure models of agricultural and industrial machinery, even to appliances for railroading, and will take with him geologists, a civil engineer and other members of a corps for scientific and industrial investigation. The mission is preliminary to possible operations still more extensive, and is regarded by the President and cabinet as one of great importance, both to Japan and to this country.

THE PRESIDENT.

The President returned this morning and was early at the Executive Mansion, where he is attending to correspondence accumulated during his absence. He will remain at the residence of Secretary Robeson while in Washington. A Cabinet meeting will be held to-morrow, when all the members will probably be present. Senator Scott, of Pennsylvania, had an interview with the President during the forenoon. The President expects to leave for Long Branch to-morrow night. General Pleasonton called at the Executive Mansion to-day. Secretaries Robeson and Belknap will return to Washington to-night or to-morrow morning.

ARRIVED.

Governor Wood, of Utah Territory, arrived here yesterday, and to-day had an interview with the President. He states that there is no ground for the charges against United States Judges McKean and Strickler, of Utah, now on file in the Attorney General's office, but they are made in the interests of the Mormons and certain parties engaged in mining operations who cannot use these judges as they desire.

CIVIL SERVICE.

The committee appointed by the President to revise the Civil Service government, met to-day, all the members present. General Wm. Curtiss was appointed Chairman and E. B. Elliott. Secretary. After conversation of a general character the Board adjourned to meet to-morrow. They then waited upon the President to pay their respects.

Shot Himself.

CINCINNATI, June 28.—A German laborer east of Hamilton, Ohio, dangerously shot himself to-day with a pistol while endeavoring to show the bystanders how Mr. Vallandigham killed himself.

ST. LOUIS.

Railroad Accident.

ST. LOUIS, June 28.—A construction train on the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad, having some fifteen laborers on it, ran into a hand-car near Moselle, about sixty miles from here yesterday morning. Six flat cars and all the laborers but one were precipitated down an embankment twenty feet high, falling on broken rocks which had been used for filling. George Saunders fell beneath one of the cars. Every bone in his body was broken and he was instantly killed. Wm. Miller fell head foremost against a rock and his skull was split open. A car fell on him, pinning him to the ground, and in this position he lay half an hour, the blood spurting from a terrible wound in the forehead at every breath. He died soon after being removed. The remainder of the men were more or less injured some of them it is feared, fatally. On the arrival of the express train from the West the wounded were placed aboard and brought to Franklin, where the most of them have families, and where surgical assistance was rendered them. The construction train was backing towards Moselle, and while rounding a curve ran into a hand car belonging to a gang of section hands, nine of whom were hurt. This information was derived from the passengers on the express train, the railroad officials declining to give any information of the disaster.

INDIAN RAID.

The Houston, Texas, Union says the Indian raid on Warren's wagon train, near Fort Richardson, some time since, in which seven men were killed and forty mules captured, was designed for the capture of Gen. Sherman, of whose coming the Indians has a knowledge. When the attack was made, one of the chiefs was heard to give an order to take Captain Sherman alive.

CONSOLIDATION.

The Kingsland Iron Furnace consolidated to-day with the Vulcan Iron and Steel Rail Manufacturing Company, situated on the adjoining grounds in South St. Louis, making one of the largest works of the kind in the country.

TITUSVILLE.

TITUSVILLE, June 28.—The Courier reports the petroleum market as follows: Sales—At Petroleum Centre, 500 bbls regardless, $4.95; 300 bbls. do, $4.90. At Rouseville: 500 bbls regardless, $4 90; 500 do, $4.90; 750 do 46 gravity $4.85. On Lower Road: 500 bbls regardless, $4.90. At Oil City: 1,000 bbls 46 gravity, $5.15. There was no movement at all to-day and the market was extremely quiet. The transactions were light and holders firm. On the Upper Road $4.55 was bid, but no sales are reported. Holders are asking $4.75 for round lots on the Lower Road; $4.95 was the best offer, but the figure would not bring any. There is any amount of oil on sale at Oil City, but without change and almost without business. Market nominal.

AT an election of officers for Hope Lodge No. 243, Knights of Pythias, held in Allegheny last evening, the following were elected: V. P., Andrew Marshall; W. C., August Ecke; W. V. C., Wm. Johnston; W. G., S. J. Thurburg; I. S., Gotlieb Miller; Representative to G. L., James Marshal; Trustee, Wm. B. Tompkins.

LOUISVILLE.

Swindler Arrested.

LOUISVILLE, June 28.—A dispatch received here to-day announces the arrest in Atlanta, Georgia, of D. H. Weisey, alias B. F. Pratt, alias B. Fionger, alias Benjamin, who has been swindling iron dealers in Southern Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Georgia, etc., pretending to be the agent of the Louisville Rolling Mill Company, and taking old scrap iron, promising to pay cash or iron manufactured for it. It is supposed he has made a large amount of money by this game.

LIEUTENANT M'KEE.

Lieutenant Hugh McKee, reported in the dispatches to-night as killed in the fight with the Coreans, was from this city, where his family is well known and highly respected.

HELD FOR MURDER.

The examination trial of Valentine Rabbit, for the murder of Jacob Rein last Sunday night, was held to-day. Rabbit was held without bail to await his trial.

CONCORD, N. H.

Democratic Action.

CONCORD, June 28.—At a meeting of the leaders of the Democratic party this afternoon, it was informally decided to bring charges of bribery, duress and undue influences against Senator Smith before the Senate, which charges will suspend him until action is taken. Meanwhile, to push the party measure, charges will be made that the same Senator has been promised a Washington clerkship of $2,000 as a consideration for his false position. Another meeting will be held this evening.

EXEMPTION.

By the new Commissions and Renewals Bill the exemption of five hundred homesteads from taxation, which passed the House yesterday, was reconsidered to-day.

JUSTICES.

Governor Weston has made over 160 Justices of the Peace.

KANSAS.

To be Hung.

TOPEKA, June 28.—Judge Morton in the District Court to-day sentenced Lewis Ford and Mary Jane Scailes to be hung on the 17th August for murdering the husband of the latter near this city last November. Ford to-day confessed he killed Scalles, and that Mrs. Scalles was present but did not assist. He also says he has cohabited with her since he was ten years old, and she had often asked him to kill her husband. Ford is about 22 years old, and Mrs. Scalles 40. The murdered man was quite old.

ERIE.

Oil Discovered.

ERIE, June 28.—This morning while boring for gas at the well of Mr. Diming near the Union depot heavy lubricating oil was struck at a depth of 453 feet. There is a great deal of excitement in consequence of this discovery.

A Bit of History--Vallandigham and John Brown.

The Springfield Republican says:

Vallandigham will be longest remembered in history, perhaps, as one of the champions of slavery who rushed to Harper's Ferry in October, 1859, to extort from John Brown, as he lay there wounded, with the bodies of his dead sons and comrades about him, a confession of who his friends were. In the remarkable conversation that followed Vallandigham was one of the chief questioners, and it was to him that Brown replied: "No man sent me here; it was my own promptings and that of my Maker. I acknowledge no master in human form. I want you to understand, gentlemen, that I respect the rights of the poorest and weakest of the colored people, oppressed by the slave system, just as much as I do those of the most wealthy and powerful. That is the idea that has moved me, and that alone."

Nor did Vallandigham, ignoble as his motive was in catechising Brown, fail to see what the man must be whose answers he heard—and the Ohio Democrat did not fall into the wretched drivel of so many Northern Republicans, that the old hero was demented. Returning to Ohio, he bore testimony thus, while Henry Ward Beecher was calling Brown crazy, and the kid-gloved Atlantic styled him "an anachronism." "He is the farthest possible removed from the ordinary ruffian, fanatic, or madman; he has coolness, daring, persistency, the stoic faith and patience, and a firmness of will and purpose unconquerable." By which it is clear that Vallandigham, like King Richard, knew a man when he saw him.

California as a Resort for Invalids.

The San Francisco Alta California asserts that Southern California presents superior advantages to Florida as a resort for invalids. San Diego, Santa Barbara, San Luis Rey, San Juan Capitano, San Buenaventura, and the coast generally between Point Conception and Lower California, present remarkable advantages in the treatment of lung diseases from the dryness of their climate. The vast amount of irrigation around Los Angelos, Anaheim and San Bernardino to some extent detract from their value in this respect. As, however, the night winds at these points are always from the sea, there is no danger of inhaling any miasma from the irrigated lands in the rear. Point Conception, at the bend of the coast near 34 deg. 30 min., is the southern limit of heavy fogs. South of that point the air is dry, the summer skies clear and the temperature warm. The annual rain fall of this coast region varies from ten to fifteen inches, while that of the leading inland resort of Florida ranges from thirty-nine to fifty-five inches. The Pacific temperature is nearly as high, and far more enjoyable. The merits of Santa Barbara and San Diego have been satisfactorily tested.

THE amount of beer consumed in this country is much greater than is generally supposed. According to statistics collected by the Internal Revenue Department, New York and New Jersey lead all other States in the amount consumed, the yearly average being 248 glasses for every man, woman and child. California comes next, the average being 165 glasses for each individual. In Pennsylvania drinkers are content with 99 glasses, while in Massachusetts the average is only 83 glasses. In Georgia and Vermont two glasses represent the average individual consumption, which is probably accounted for as to the former State by the fact that the juice of the apple is preferred to milder beverages.

BY MAIL FROM ABROAD.

AN association for the protection of emigrants was organized at Gratz, Austria, May 5.

AT Vienna a world's fair will be held in 1873, for which preparations are already making.

AN International Geograghical Convention will be held at Antwerp from August 14 to 20th next.

THE lager beer brewers of Germany will hold their first annual convention at Dresden from July 26 to 29.

THE fiftieth anniversary of the independence of Greece was celebrated with great ceremonies at Athens, May 5.

BY the census taken in Austria December 31, 1869, the proportion of the sexes in that country was 1,000 males to 1,039 females.

THE ladies of the Sultan's household are said to have read $3,000 worth of novels last year, and among them several of Mrs. Southworth's.

ELEVEN millions of dogs assist in supporting the Established Church of England, and in pensioning the Princesses. Five shillings a head is the tax.

IMMENSE embezzlements of funds belonging to the imperial finance department are said to have been discovered in Vienna. Several high functionaries are implicated.

THE Sultan of Turkey is said to have such a passion for billiards that he frequently rises at two o'clock in the morning and insists on finishing some game he has in his mind.

THE last report respecting the Prince of Wales is that he is smoking himself to death, though his friends declare he can smoke a ton of tobacco without the least injury to himself.

THE Princess Louise has obtained the third prize of $50 for a cleverly painted fan, representing a skating scene, which is now being exhibited in the gallery of the International Exhibition.

IN the Anglo-American Ambulance Corps in France, chloroform was invariably employed for amputations. Bleeding was controlled by digital pressure, the tourniquet being never used, and the arteries were twisted, not tied.

SWISS citizens abroad, by an agreement of the Federal Council of Switzerland and of the German government, are henceforth to enjoy the protection of the German consulates, as was notified to the latter by a circular of their government, dated Berlin, April 24.

IT is now positively known that the Emperor Francis Joseph was firmly determined last January to overthrow the liberal constitution of the empire and that only the urgent remonstrances of Count von Beust prevented him from carrying his purpose into execution.

GENERAL VON MOLTKE has written a letter to the poet Oscar Von Redwitz, who dedicated to him the "Song of the New German Empire," very modestly disclaiming merit for himself, and declaring that the great German conquest was the result of circumstances, rather than of individual ability and prowess.

THE effluvium at La Roquette, where the insurgents murdered the Archbishop of Paris and so many other victims, is stated to be dreadful. In the neighborhood of Belleville and the Buttes Chaumont the number of dead is so great that every one who can be laid hold of is forced to assist in digging graves and interring the bodies.

A TELEGRAM was received a few days ago in Strasburg from Deputy Mayor Klein, who is at present in Berlin, announcing that the sum of 10 millions of francs has been provisionally granted for reconstruction of buildings destroyed during the siege. This good news cannot fail to produce an excellent effect in Strasburg, and increase the number of the friends of Germany.

ONE thousand corpses, partially burned with petroleum, to prevent infection, were buried on the 29th of May, in the Champ de Mars. The Liberte describes petroleum as insufficient, and suggests utter destruction by quicklime, not only as a sanitary measure, but to reduce to dishonored dust the remains of criminals, and leave to future revolutionists no possibility of giving an ovation to their bones.

IT is said that Count Moltke will visit England, to be present at the grand review on the Berkshire Downs in September. The Germans are sending their best scout to reconnoiter for the Battle of the Dorking celebrated by prophesy in the columns of Blackwood. The Iron Count will have his ever-watchful eyes open. Will they twinkle a little at the little army of the Berkshire Downs?

A MEMBER of an old family of nobility at Berlin, who was recently married, had a numerous detachment of policemen stationed outside the church that he might suffer from no intrusion. How discreet he was in this act is shown by the fact that a lady, armed with a whip, attempted to make her way into the church and put an end to the ceremony by a process of summary castigation. The indignant Amazon proved to be the bridegroom's sister, who resorted to a disgraceful proceeding to prevent what she regarded as a disgraceful marriage. She was ignominiously ejected, and the ceremonies proceeded.

AN exceedingly interesting discovery has been made near Holler in the Grand-Duchy of Luxemburg. A workman of that place found, about a fortnight ago, no less than 878 Roman coins, besides several urns, not far from the village and only a few feet below the surface of the soil. The coins belong to the reigns of Vespasian, Domitian, Nerva, Trajan, Adrian, Antoninus, Aurelius, Commodus, Divus Verus, Diocletian, Diva Faustina, Chrispina Augusta, &c. The present possessor of this treasure, Pastor Bernard of Welwerdingen, intends, we understand to dispose of the greater part of it at a fair price.

MR. POPIEL, the new diocesan of Chelm in Poland, has instructed his clergy to preach against the dogma of the infallibility of the Pope, as it is to be used as the pretext for separating that diocese from Rome. Those who follow his instructions endeavor to prove that the Pope in the pride of his heart has made himself equal with God, and can therefore no longer be acknowledged as the Head of the Church Militant. They also argue that those who acknowledge and reverance a man as God, cannot claim to belong to the Church of Christ. These sermons are said to have made a great impression on the congregations.

THE East India Government, as a means of recuperating its exhausted treasury, has adopted the rather novel expedient of taxing marriages. As every adult Hindoo is married, and many of them considerably so, this measure will touch the pockets of all the disciples of Brahma in the land. The tax is to be discriminative, all entering the holy state being allowed the choice of class, high or low; those who are or wish to be thought of the bon ton, of course, paying the high rate. As marriages in India are always costly matters, the extravagant outlay of the parents on the marriage of their children frequently keeping them in debt all the rest of their lives, this step may have been taken by the government as a means of removing the evil.

THE Koelnische Zeitung states that the purpose of Rochefort to escape to Belgium was communicated to the Versailles Government by a letter which Rochefort wrote to his mistress, requesting her to repair at once to Brussels, where he would arrive on the 20th of May, and, if possible, rent the same dwelling house that they formerly occupied together. He also wrote that the rule of the Communists was rapidly coming to an end, and that he would discontinue the publication of his journal and secure his own retreat. This letter fell into the hands of the Prefect of Bordeaux, who at once sent a copy to Versailles, and Rochefort, with his friend Mourot, was arrested at Meaux and taken to Versailles. The Paris friends of Rochefort were very indignant at his attempt to escape.

THE Prussian authorities having often experienced considerable trouble and delay, particularly during the late war, from the falling (through rottenness) or blowing down of wooden telegraph poles in exposed situations, a short time ago resolved to do away with this evil, and to that end concluded to make an experiment with iron telegraph poles, which were substituted for the wooden ones on the line between Berlin and Potsdam, and also experimentally, along the railway from Weissenfels to Gera. The result has been a complete success, and it is now contemplated to introduce them on all the Prussian telegraph lines extending for more than three hundred and fifty German miles, and are also there rapidly taking the place of the old wooden poles. Owing to the frequent renewals made neccessary with wooden poles, iron ones have been found much cheaper, after their first erection, besides which their appearance is very much more graceful and pleasing to the eye than the old-fashioned dilapidated and crooked monstrosities.

SAYS a London letter: "The Grand Duke Vladimir, of Russia, the Czar's second son, is in town just now. He is doing the sights of London with all the vigor and energy of a Northern constitution, beginning early in the morning, and keeping it up till late at night, or rather I should say early next morning." The same writer says: "The public's 'own' second Prince, the Duke of Edinburgh, is home from his tour round the world, and I suppose he will now take up his residence in London, unless an event which the other day seemed very likely to happen, should summon him to Gotha. He is heir to his uncle, the Duke of Saxe-Coburg, but he never goes there; the people lately have been declaring they don't want him, and I fancy he will not be loth to sell his birthright for a good mess of pottage from the Prussians. He is as yet the most unpopular of the Princes. His greed in regard to the Australian presents he received, and the paltry plated trinkets he gave in return, at the same time charging the country heavily for his expense, disgusted everybody."

IN every portion of Europe, Americans have the name of being the most extravagant people in the world. British opulence and Russian magnificence have paled in the presence of American grandeur. Every great continental city has some incident to relate which illustrates American lavishness. An incident was recently mentioned in a lace house in Paris, which has become historical. The proprietor called attention to a photograph hung on his wall. He remarked: "That is the picture of the memorable lace purchase by Kate Chase, daughter of Chief Justice Chase and wife of Senator Sprague." It is understood to be the finest point lace ever made. The Queen of England and the Empress of France considered it to expensive, but the wife of an American Senator did not hesitate to pay $10,000 in gold for six and one half yards. Of course a woman of such artistic notions is greatly admired in Paris. In Paris the Western people, particularly Californians, are considered the most lavish in the use of their money. Two of the fair sex from San Francisco recently ordered eighty-five dresses. Even the agent, an American, was astonished at such an order, but it was faithfully executed. With such evidences of American lavishness, it is not surprising that the Russians and the English have become secondary to the Americans in all the marts of fashion.

GEO. WASHINGTON was a pure patriot—he was first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen, and never drank anything but Pier, Dannals & Co.'s cream ale.

Reminiscences of Fifty Years.
BY MARK BOYD. 1 vol., 12mo. 394 pp. Price, $2.00.
Mr. Boyd has seen much of life at home and abroad, he has enjoyed the acquaintance or friendship of many illustrious men, and he has the additional advantage of remembering a number of anecdotes told by his father, who possessed a retentive memory and a wide circle of distinguished friends. The book, as the writer acknowledges, is a perfect "olla podrida." There is considerable variety in the anecdotes. Some relate to great generals, like the Duke of Wellington and Lord Clyde; some to artists and men of letters, and these include the names of Campbell, Rogers, Thackeray and David Roberts; some to statesmen, and among others to Pitt, who was a friend of Mr. Boyd's father, to Lords Palmerston, Brougham and Derby; some to discoverers, like Sir John Franklin and Sir John Ross; and others, among which may be reckoned perhaps the most amusing in the volume, to persons wholly unknown to fame, or to manners and customs now happily obsolete.

THE
New Orleans,
Mobile and Texas
RAILROAD CO.
Are building a Trunk Line, connecting New Orleans with Mobile on the east, and giving the Only Railroad Connection between the former city and the great and most productive State of Texas on the west, the total distance from Mobile to Houston being 475 miles.
The Company is composed of strong Northern capitalists, who have already expended nearly TEN MILLION DOLLARS of their own funds in the construction of the line. They have built about 225 miles from Mobile westward, and secured by purchase of securities and made provision for the thorough repair and equipment of the 108 miles constituting the Texas division, leaving but 140 miles to be built.
To Complete the Entire Road.
It is believed that no other railroad corporation in the country has ever made so large an expenditure from its own means before offering any of its securities to the public.
The Company now offer for sale the Eight per Cent. Mortgage Bonds
upon the Louisiana division of 226½ miles from New Orleans to the Sabine River. This will probably be the most valuable portion of the whole line, as it will be the only rail communication by which the enormous productions of Texas can reach the Southern metropolis.
So important is this road considered to Louisiana that the State has made very liberal grants in aid of the enterprise, by direct donations, by endorsement of its bonds, and by subscriptions to the Stock of the Company, amounting in all to over eight million dollars.
The Bonds now offered are of two classes:
First Mortgage Bonds,
to the amount of $12,500 per mile, and Second Mortgage Bonds,
to an equal amount, both principal and interest guaranteed by the State of Louisiana. The price of the two classes is the same, and subscriber can take their choice.
The Bonds are only in the denomination of $1,000, or £200 each, interest payable January and July, at the rate of eight per cent. currency in New York, or seven per cent. gold in London, at the option of the holder, at the time each coupon is due. Bonds can be registered, if desired.
NO BETTER SECURITY
Has Been Offered
to investors. The Bonds are largely profitable, as well as entirely safe. One thousand dollars invested in these eight per cent. bonds will give the purchaser
More than 77 Per Cent.
greater annual interest than the same amount invested in the new Government Five Per Cents
At the same price, an 8 per cent. currency long bond is far cheaper than a 7 per cent. gold one. Calculating a return to specie payment in three years, and taking the time that the bonds of the New Orleans, Mobile and Texas Railroad have to run—45 years—we find that by compounding the interest of each, every six months, at 7 per cent. an 8 per cent. currency bond at 90 will give a return of $2,614 18 more than a 7 per cent. gold bond, at the same price, or nearly three times the amount of the original investment.
The bonds are dated May 1, 1871. The first coupon will, therefore, be a fractional one, running from May 1 to July 1. The price is 90, and accrued interest at 8 per cent. currency from May 1 to date of remittance.
Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by Messrs. S. McClean & Co.,
BANKERS.

WE are indebted to Senator George H. Anderson for important public documents.

THE crops of the State promise very well. Fruit will not be plenty, but the yield will be as large as that of several preceding years.

THE re-nomination of President Grant every day grows more probable and the current of public opinion in all sections is settling in favor of his re-election. He has made a worthy, faithful and competent Chief Executive, and it would be but a fitting compliment to again select him as a leader of the great Republican party in 1872.

ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS in his salutatory, upon assuming control of the editorial columns of the Atlanta Sun, boldly declares his adherence to the doctrine of States' rights. He speaks of the "peoples," not the people of the United States, and in order that there may be no misunderstanding of his meaning, he declares that he will advocate the doctrine in the columns of the Sun, that the government of the United States is only a Confederate Republic, which may be dissolved at pleasure. There is no "new departure" in this sentiment.

THE entertainment afforded our Baltimore and Cumberland guests during their brief stay in the city was highly creditable to the municipal government, and especially so to the several committees of Council who had charge of the details. The banquet was a great success, and the various excursions to points of interest in and about the city were well managed and afforded much pleasurable enjoyment to our guests. To day most of the excursionists will return home, all, we hope, duly impressed with favorable ideas regarding our city and citizens.

WE SEE it stated that tickets are for sale in London for a trip around the world. The price for the round trip has been fixed at £225 in gold, which is equal to about $1,250 in currency. As the distance of 23,562 miles, the rate per mile will be a fraction over five cents. The time required to perform the journey is eighty-one days, but tourists will be allowed the privilege of making detours up the coast of China, the Ganges and the Nile. They may visit Greece, Constantinople, and wherever else they choose. It is expected that coupon tickets for the trip will soon be for sale here, as all the arrangements have been perfected.

FROM carefully prepared tables of the sugar production in Louisiana, says the Philadelphia Press, it appears that the largest amount manufactured between the years 1823 and 1870 was 459,410 hogsheads in 1861. The amount produced in 1870 was 144,881, being an increase of 57,791 hogsheads over the production for 1869. This is very gratifying, as showing the restoration of the industrial resources of the States that were so completely prostrated by the war, and also the success of free labor. In 1864 but 6,668 hogsheads were produced. The increase has been steady since, but at no time so great as during last year.

THE political campaign in Pennsylvania promises to result in an old-fashioned victory for the Republican party next October. The ranks are closely united and a fixed determination has been made to secure such a majority over the demoralized and divided Democracy as will in no uncertain way proclaim and decide the result of the next Presidential contest. Pennsylvania will undoubtedly prove the great battle ground in 1872. As our electors may go so will go the Union. It is therefore not singular that hopeful eyes are turned towards us by other States of the country, and that we are expected to do our full share of political work. We will not disappoint our friends, but in October will give the assurance that for Grant in 1872 our old Commonwealth is secured.

IF INSTEAD of inflaming their passions by incendiary speeches, Jefferson Davis had impressed upon the minds of the Georgians the importance of establishing a system of popular education, he would have better promoted the interests of the South and the whole country. In Georgia there are no common schools, although it has three hundred and ninety thousand children who are able to attend school, and sixty thousand native adult whites who can neither read nor write. A recent law authorizes the establishment of schools in the State, but contains no provision for raising the funds necessary to carry on their operations. And it is believed that, notwithstanding their evident importance, the Democratic Legislature which will assemble in November, will repeal the law which provides for their establishment. The people down there are willing to give millions for rebellion, but not a cent for education. It is no wonder that the nation was plunged into rebellion. What could be expected of such a mass of ignorance as is to be found everywhere in the South? The people in "Dixie" seem to be blissful in their ignorance, and firm in the belief that it is folly to be wise.

CAMERON AND THE COMMERCIAL.

The Commercial, as usual, misquotes us. We stated, we thought, very plainly, that in case Hon. Simon Cameron should receive the nomination for the Vice-Presidency, he would be elected, in spite of its (the Commercial's) opposition, and therefore it made no difference to us, or the party, whether it opposed or favored him.

While we are upon this subject, we should like to ask, in all frankness, and without any particle of disposition to either "kick or insult" our good neighbor, but with the single motive, so apparently dear to its own heart, viz., harmony in the Republican ranks, if it is not about time for it to cease its bitter, personal and relentless attacks on Mr. Cameron? He stands to-day in the United States Senate at the head of the Foreign relations Committee, an avowed and steadfast protectionist, who has done more for the interests of his State than any of his many predecessors, who has given to us the proud position, we, as a State, to-day hold in the Senate, and before the world, a strong, active, bold REPUBLICAN, who never tires in the good work; in a word, who, as a statesman, an active, clear headed business man, a politician of rare sagacity, a diplomatist of clear judgment, a power in and out of the party, a protectionist, a reliable and straight-forward friend to his State, to his party and to any and to all who deserve his friendship, is worth a ship load of such advisers as the Commercial continually surrounds itself with, and encourages in their attacks upon him. When some friend, who knows his worth to his State, to his country and to his party, attempts to rebuke its folly, and short-sightedness, it complains that its calumnies are met with "kicks and insults." Brave partisan, do you suppose that your malevolence is to be permittted to pass unrebuked? Do you suppose that the friends of Mr. Cameron, the advocates and believers in the policy of protection, those who have the best of means for knowing his value in his present position, as chairman of the Foreign Committee, and therefore leader of the Senate, those who know his value to the State, the nation and the party, those who believe he might be still more useful as the Vice President of his country, do you suppose they will overlook your efforts, feeble though they may be, to oppose him? We care not what YOU may be able to trump up against him, we know he is an able statesman, who had strength enough to reach his proud and useful position, and we give you here, and now, to understand that your attacks upon him will be met and answered by his friends, and you must not be surprised if you find that some of the blows hurt. We do not seek this contest, neither will we shrink from it, if forced upon us.

ECONOMY AGAIN.

A few days ago we called the attention of our readers to the financial condition of the city of New York, which enjoys the benefit of a Democratic government. In the short period of about twenty-two months the democracy succeeded in adding some fifty-two millions of dollars to the debt of that city, notwithstanding the Mayor gave the most positive assurance in his "Message," that the municipal government had conducted its affairs on the principle of retrenchment, and the most rigid economy. Of the truthfulness of this assertion all can judge who have read the exhibit given of the finances of New York city.

Wherever the Democrats bear sway there is the most extravagant expenditure of the public money. Let us turn our attention to Kentucky, and we will find a state of things there equal to that of New York, although not on so grand a scale. In 1867 the Democrats obtained complete control of the State. In October of that year there was a surplus in the Treasury of nearly twenty-six thousand dollars. In 1868, one year after they obtained control, there was a deficit of nearly six hundred thousand dollars, which in 1870 had increased to nine hundred and two thousand eight hundred and sixty dollars. The State Auditor estimates that on the 10th of October, in the present year, the deficit will amount to about one million two hundred thousand dollars, and recommends, in order to relieve the Treasury from "its present temporary embarrassment," that an "income tax should be imposed for a period of five years." Thus it will be seen that a Democratic Auditor, in a Democratic State, not only recommends additional taxation to relieve the Treasury from its temporary embarrassment (we should rather say chronic embarrassment), but declares that the only way to do this is to impose an "odious income tax," a thing which the Democracy everywhere denounce as inquisitorial and oppressive. But this is of no importance as long as it is imposed by a Democratic government, and its proceeds go to replete the coffers of Democratic office-holders. Democratic rule, then, means an increasing deficit in the Treasury, and additional taxation upon the people. We do not know of any exception to this rule, and if any can be produced, we will very cheerfully give it publicity.

Since the Democrats assumed the control of the State and the Treasury of Kentucky, the Sinking Fund has been bled pretty freely. The Legislature, on the 6th of March, 1867, authorized three hundred and fifty thousand dollars to be drawn from it. The whole mount of which it has been plundered since that time is one million and a half, of which no account can be given, although repeated calls have been made for a statement of the uses to which the funds have been appropriated.

After all this expenditure, the Auditor stated, over his own signature, on the 22d of May, in the present year, that "the condition of the Treasury is such as to force me to cease auditing claims until it is replenished by collection of the revenue." But no one can tell where all the money that has been collected has gone, although the Treasury is in a state of absolute depletion.

Five millions of dollars have been taken from the treasury of Kentucky of which no account can be given; yet the Democratic party claim to be the party of economy. We do not think, however, that the tax-payers relish such economy as this, which imposes additional burdens upon the people and increases the public liabilities.

Contrast the state of things in Kentucky, and wherever else the Democrats have control, with that of the Republican Administration of President Grant. Since he acceded to the Presidency, two hundred and thirty millions of the bonded debt have been paid, which is a saving to the country of fourteen millions annually, in the shape of interest. And, with all this, there has been a heavy reduction in taxes. In addition to a large abatement of tariff duties, the last Congress took off fifty millions of internal taxation, and Senator Sherman announced in his Columbus speech that at the next session of Congress "the whole system will go by the board, except the taxes on spirits, beer and tobacco, and perhaps a few stamps."

Evidently, then, the Republican is the party for the country. Its object is to secure not the greatest good for the greatest number, but the greatest good for all. Democrats who view the situation calmly and dispassionately must see that their leaders, whenever they have the opportunity, run everything in their own interests. Wherever they have control, treasuries and sinking funds are bled to death, taxation is increased and public liabilities are multiplied. Before they can put forth their claims for power they must show a better financial record than any they have made yet, and give some evidence that when they speak of economy they do not mean extravagance and wholesale plunder. A "new departure" in this matter would almost republicanise them in California, Iowa, Pennsylvania and Ohio, and entitle them to admission, after twelve months probation, into the Republican ranks. In the meantime lessons on political economy, both in theory and practice, are given gratuitously by Grant's Administration.

COUNT VON BEUST, it is said, is soon to be made a Prince of the Austrian Empire, and his new prospective honors are very unfavorably received by his many political enemies at the Court of Vienna, who have tried in vain to alienate from him the affections of Francis Joseph.

WILLIAMSPORT.

The United States Courts—Sentence of Roberts, alias Altic—alias "Bob"—Trial of Other Counterfeiters—Revenue Cases—&c., &c.

[Correspondence of Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WILLIAMSPORT, June 24, 1871.

In accordance with my promise I drop you a brief letter from this beautiful inland city. So much has been printed in praise of Williamsport that nothing remains to be said. Its beautiful houses—magnificent streets, gigantic saw-mills—its palatial hotel, connecting railroads, and populous trout ponds—its Seminary boom and lumber trade—and above all its citizen, Herdic, who has contributed so much to make it a handsome and prosperous city, are all familiar to the people of the whole State. The officers, jurors, witnesses, lawyers and parties attending the United States Courts, are enjoying themselves, and are all loud in praise of the cleanliness, beauty and comfort—to be found everywhere throughout the town and its environs.

During the week the attendance in the Circuit and District Courts has been very large, and an unusual amount of business has been disposed of. Judge McKennan finished up his list, and left for home on Thursday. He has made a very favorable impression on the bar of the State, and is universally regarded as an able and accomplished Judge. The business of the District Court will probably be finished about Tuesday. Judge McCandless has very much improved in health, and has been able to sit full sessions. The Grand Jury returned twenty-one true bills, and was discharged on Friday. The presentment made was very complimentary to the District Attorney, to the people of Williamsport and to the Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong, for the handsome court-room, fitted up under his superintendence for the Circuit Court. It is, indeed, one of the most beautiful and conveniently arranged court-rooms in the State.

Lewis Roberts, alias, Altic, alias, "Bob," was arraigned on two of the eighteen bills found against him at Pittsburgh. He waived a trial and plead guilty. The District Attorney, in moving for judgment, stated that this man had been engaged in the counterfeiting business for the last twenty years; that by his own admission he had sold at the rate of thirty-five cents on the dollar no less than fifty thousand dollars per month for the past twelve years, making more than seven millions of dollars of bogus money that this single man has put in circulation. Judge McCandless sentenced him to pay a fine of ten thousand dollars and to undergo an imprisonment of twenty years in the Penitentiary. In the remarks accompanying the sentence the Judge was very affecting. It was a painful scene, witnessed by a large audience in breathless silence.

John Stetler of Wilksbarre, who was about sixty-five years old was next tried. He was defended by Hon. W. W. Ketcham and Judge Maynard. After the evidence for the government was in, counsel asked leave to withdraw their plea and plead guilty. He was then arraigned on a second indictment, to which he also plead guilty. This was a bad case. The District Attorney offered in evidence a diary found upon his person when he was arrested, containing entries of transactions in counterfeit money, and also the amours of this old man, showing him to be a lecherous old villain. He was sentenced to eight years in the penitentiary. William Swartman, was the next one tried. He was ably defended by Hon. W. W. Ketcham. The case closed to-day. A large number of ladies were in attendance to hear the argument. Mr. Ketcham's speech was very eloquent and impressive. District Attorney Swoope concluded with a calm, clear and convincing argument for the government. The jury after being out five hours returned a verdict of guilty. The prisoner was remanded for sentence.

A number of revenue cases were tried, all of them resulting in verdicts for the Government. Chas. Picher, of Lynn, a cigar manufacturer, was found guilty of defrauding the government out of the tax on eight hundred thousand cigars, and omitting to make entries in his book, and correct returns to the Assessor. P. F. Callahan, of Luzerne, was convicted of doing business as a wholesale liquor dealer without payment of special tax. James Edgar, of Columbia, was convicted of using stamped casks for whisky a second time, &c. Several revenue cases still remain to be tried, but they are said to be short, and Court will probably adjourn before the middle of the week.

Quite a number of Pittsburghers have been here, and all seemed to enjoy themselves highly. The pure air, clear water, and general cleanliness are highly appreciated by the denizens of our smoky city.

Yours, X.

FARM GARDEN AND HOUSEHALD.

CULTURE OF SMALL GRAIN.

The other day, while riding near Mossville, in this county, we called upon Jacob Littleton, with whose farm everybody in this section is acquainted. In talking over the subject of farming generally, we remarked every farmer ought to keep a book account with all of his crops. In that way he could tell what he was making money on, and how much, and whether it would pay to push any particular thing, or discontinue raising certain others. Mr. Littleton answered, that that was precisely his plan. His stock, fruit, grain, and all other accounts were kept separate, and he knew just how much each branch cost, and whether it paid to raise it. To our question, what paid the best, he answered "Small grains, especially wheat." We asked him, how in the name of common sense, he managed to raise small grain at a profit when everybody else lost money or else led a starving life at it. To be brief, this is the plan: He raises fall wheat. In the autumn he prepares the ground, and when he sows his wheat he adds a bushel of oats to the acre. In due time the seed germinates and comes up. The oats get the start of the wheat, and by the time winter sets in are knee high, while the wheat is only a few inches. The cold weather in winter kills the oats, and it falls over the wheat, protecting it from the weather and mulching it so that in the spring the wheat makes an astonishing growth. Last year by pursuing this plan the land of Mr. Littleton yielded thirty-nine bushels of wheat to the acre, which he sold at a dollar and forty-five cents a bushel. He sent to Indiana and procured the seed. It was, we believe, the Mediterranean variety.—Peoria Review.

SHEEP-TICKS.

Now is a favorable time for a raid on ticks. They have left the shorn sheep to escape the light, and will be found gathered in force on the lambs. Lambs can not thrive when tormented by them. The best and simplest remedy is tobacco. To make the dip take a pound of cheap plug tobacco for every twenty lambs; tear it up and boil it in water sufficient to entirely cover the lamb. Have a water-tight box large enough to hold a lamb. Arrange a sloping table at the side of the box, which will permit the spare liquid to run back into it. When the dip is quite cold put it in the box, take a lamb by the forelegs with one hand, with the other cover up the mouth and nostrils; let an assistant take the hind legs, and immerse the lamb entirely, long enough to allow the dip to penetrate the wool. Lay the lamb on the sloping table and squeeze out the surplus liquid, and the operation is complete. Do this each year, and ticks will disappear altogether.—Hearth and Home.

THATCHING HAY-STACKS.

The value of the hay lost by reason of damage in the stack from exposure to rains, would possibly be sufficient to pay for thatching several times over. Besides the neatness of appearance given to a yard containing a row of thatched hay-stacks is worth a good deal. The simplicity of the process and the perfect security from the weather afforded by it should cause it to be adopted on every farm where sufficient barn room is not provided for the hay crop. To house the hay on many farms would necessitate a large expenditure, and here is provided a simple but perfect protection, at a very trifling cost.

CLEANING OUT GRANARIES.

The ravages of insects on grain are by no means confined to out-door attacks. The loss arising from the depredations of insects which infest granaries, we judge, will fully equal that, from those which are troublesome in the field. But the former can be prevented, while we must occasionally suffer the latter. When granaries are empty, they may be freed from weevil, and all other kindred vermin, by washing with hot, soft soap-suds, using a stiff broom to disturb all intruders which may be hid in the cracks of the floor or bins. Fresh lime wash, well brushed into the ceilings and walls, will complete the business. When they are out, they should be kept out. No open windows should be allowed in a granary during the summer months, when the moths are flying.

HOME MADE PHOSPHATES.

A suggestion which may be of use to everybody who keeps house and owns a garden, a grape vine or a pear tree, is made in the Manchester Mirror. Out of two bushels of bones, saved from time to time during the year, a bushel and a half of ashes, a peck of lime and three pails of water, boiled together and mixed with muck in equal quantity, the writer has made a barrel of phosphate, equal to the best in the market, and at a cost of less than a dollar. He applies it to his grape-vines and dwarf pear trees with a magical effect.

CUTTING GRASS ON LAWNS.

To keep a lawn in good condition it should be mown often, and as soon as the grass is cut it should be raked off, and not allowed to remain in a heap. If this is permitted for twenty-four hours even, heating will take place, and the growth is stimulated under the heap, and an uneven spot will be produced. If allowed to remain longer than this, when it is removed the grass will be found to be "blanched," and the color will be injured for the remainder of the season. Green sand marl, where it can be obtained, makes an excellent top-dressing for lawns; it has the advantage of being perfectly clean, inodorous, and productive of a thick bottom, and is entirely free from foul seeds. During dry seasons, occasional waterings in the evening should not be omitted. If lawns are cut close and often, the grass may be allowed to remain, but only when cut over by a "mower," as the grass then is evenly distributed; if cut by a scythe, it will lie too unevenly, and must be raked off.

DOMESTIC RECIPES.

Kettles may be cleansed of onion and other odors by dissolving a teaspoonful of pearlash of salaratus in water, and washing them.

No better plan has ever been devised to keep butter sweet than to put it in clean jars and cover it with strong brine. No kind of vessel, cask, or tub will answer so well as a jar. In this way it can be kept fresh and sweet for twelve months.

Take a large turnip and scrape out the inside, leaving a thick wall all around; fill the cavity with earth, and plant in it some clinging vine or morning glory. Suspend the turnip with cords, and in a little time the vines will twine around the strings, and the turnip, sprouting from below, will put forth leaves and stems that will turn upward and curl gracefully around the base.

Chow-Chow—Two quarts of green tomatoes, two quarts of white onions, one dozen green peppers, one dozen green cucumbers, one large head of cabbage, chop fine. Season with mustard and celery seed, to suit the taste. Cover with the best cider vinegar. Boil two hours slowly, stirring continually. As soon as you take it from the stove, add two tablespoonfuls of salad oil. Cover tight and keep in a cool place.—Farmer.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Accident in the Rocky Mountains.

The Rocky Mountain News of the 24th of June says: Honorable Felix R. Brunot, chairman of the board of Indian commissioners, Reverend Doctor Kendal, former pastor of the Third Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh, secretary of the Presbyterian board of home missions, Reverend Mr. Portius, of St. Louis, Reverend Sheldon Jackson, of Denver, and Mr. Thomas K. Cree, of Pittsburgh, accompanied by three ladies, made their ascent of Gray's peak from Georgetown, on Monday. The path, except in one place, was cleared of snow, and the difficulties were safely overcome. When near the top a violent snow storm set in, and when the top was reached it amounted to almost a gale, rendering the situation, to say the least, unpleasant. The view of course was very meagre and the preparations for the descent were soon made, without any adventure, excepting that the horse of one of the ladies laid down, throwing her off, damage. After taking carriages a spring in the but did no carriage of Doctor Kendal's party was broken and Mrs. Kendal insisted on riding the horse on which she had gone up the mountain, Reverend Mr. Portius keeping her company. Just after the two had left the carriage the steep hill near the Terrible works was reached and Doctor Kendal said he would walk down it, and got out, leaving only Rev. Mr. Jackson in the carriage. Just after leaving the top of the hill one of the horses pressed the other over the embankment, and despite the efforts of Mr. Jackson, who, seeing the peril, jumped out, the two horses and carriage went over the embankment perpendicularly about one hundred feet, to the creek below about one hundred and fifty feet, making six or eight complete revolutions in the descent. The carriage was smashed up, but singular to say, the horses were not killed. On cutting them out of the harness one of them rolled into the creek, which rushes by with the fury of a torrent, and was carried a quarter of a mile, turning over and over perhaps a hundred times, and being carried through cascades and by immense rocks, bringing up at a dam just below the road. On being brought out he was found, with the exception of a few cuts and bruises, to be all right. The escape was a most wonderful one, and had the party been in the carriage at the time they could scarcely have escaped certain death.

Annie Laurie.

Notes and Queries has the following interesting memorandum concerning the heroine of the well-known ballid of "Annie Laurie:"

"The birth of this young lady, so well known to many of your readers, is quaintly recorded by her father Sir Robert Laurie, of Maxwelltown, in the family register in these words:

"At the pleasure of the Almighty God, my daughter, Annie Laurie, was born upon the 15th day of December, 1683 years, about six o'clock in the morning, and was baptised by Mr. Geo' [Hunter, of Glencairn].

And his own marriage is given in the same quaint style:

"At the pleasure of the Almighty, I was married to my wife Jean Riddell upon the 27th day of July, 1674, in the Tron Kirk of Edinb, by Mr. Annane."

"These statements I find in the valuable collection of manuscripts left by the late Mr. W. F. H. Arundell, and which his son W. F. Hunter Arundell, Esq., of Brrjarg Tower, Dumfriesshire, has kindly allowed me to examine and make use of. They contain a vast fund of curious information respecting the antiquities and county families of Dumfriesshire. Many of your readers will know that Annie was wooed by William Douglas, of Fingland, in Kirkeudbrightshire. Her charms are thus spoken of in his pathetic lyric, 'Bonnie Annie Laurie.'

"Her brow is like the snaw-drift,
Her neck is like the swan,
Her face it is the fairest
That e'er the sun shone on,
That e'er the sun shone on,
And dark blue is her e'e;
And for bonnie Annie Laurie
I'd lay me down and die."

"She was, however, obdurate to his passionate appeal, preferring Alexander Ferguson of Craigdarroch, to whom she was eventually married. This William Douglas was said to be the hero of the well-known song, 'Willie was a Wanton Wag.' Though he was refused by Annie he did not pine away in single blessedness, but made a runaway marriage with Miss Elizabeth Clerk of Glenboig, in Galloway, by whom he had four sons and two daughters.

A Letter from Florence Nightingale.

Florence Nightingale, writing to a friend in Brooklyn in acknowledgment of a certificate of honorary membership in a Missionary Society, speaks in very feeling terms of the generous contributions made in England and the United States to alleviate the sufferings caused by the late war between Germany and France. She says:

I am sure it will please your Society to learn (for are we not all brothers and sisters in the United States and in Old England—of one family and of one tongue?) how their English relations, the subjects of our Queen, in all climates and in all longitudes—not by any means only the rich, but the whole mass of hard-working, honest, frugal people—have contributed every penny they could so ill spare. Women have given the very shoes off their feet, the very suppers out of their children's mouths, to the poor sufferers in this awful war—not of their own creed—not of their own thinking or way of living at all—but in the freest spirit of Christian charity, all have given, every man, woman and child above pauperism. So general a collection among the "working classes" never has been, not even for our own Patriotic Fund. Poor congregations of all kinds—"Puritan" chapels in my own dear hills of Derbyshire, national schools, factories, poor negro congregations in the West Indies; In London, ragged school children, who, having nothing to give, gave up their only feast in the yaar, that the money might be applied to the orphans in the war, "who want it more than we." London Dissenting congregations, without a single rich member, who sent their large collections; poor working women's parties, who made up warm clothing for the sufferers in that frightful winter campaign, and refused to be paid for it, and then the little children making their little birthday presents for the "Lord Christ," for Him to give to the children made homeless and well nigh helpless by the war.

The New Cancer Remedy.

The State Department has received large numbers of letters from persons in different parts of the country asking to be supplied with some of the cunderango, the recently discovered cancer remedy, brought to the attention of the government by the Ecuadorian Minister. These applicants are answered by a circular as follows:

"Sir: In compliance with your wishes I enclose a copy of the correspondence which has passed between this department, the Minister of Ecuador accredited to the United States, and the Minister of the United States at Quito, relative to the discovery of the vegetable called cunderango.

"The limited supply of the vegetable with which this department was furnished has been exhausted. It is said by Dr. Bliss, of this city, who has had charge of the experiments, that the remedy has been successful in all cases in which it has been anministered."

HARDNESS OF HEARING.

We repeat what we have often said before in these columns that there are numberless persons who are sadly afflicted with slight difficulty of hearing, for which they have been taught to believe that there is no cure. The late investigations in the anatomy and structure of the ear, and the improvement of medicine in regard to the treatment thereof, have made these ailments as easy of removal as any other human infirmity. Dr. Keyser, who has an office in the rear of his Great Medicine Store, 167 Liberty street, has had uniform success in the treatment of all such cases, besides a vast variety of chronic diseases of a scrofulous character, embracing those of the skin and integumentary system: together with Fistula and Piles. Our citizens need not run off to distant localities when persons of such ability as Dr. K. possesses may be found in our midst. We always prefer giving home talent the distinction to which it is justly entitled, if, for no other reason, that prominent one, that such can always be found at their post when wanted, and need not wander all over the country in quest of patients.

THE UNIVERSAL SAFEGUARD.

It is useless for State Legislatures to pass laws for the preservation of the public health, if the great law of self-preservation, which depends for its enforcement upon the will of the individual, is suffered to remain a dead letter.

There is scarcely an adult member of the community, of either sex, in the country, who has not seen the testimony in favor of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, furnished over their own signatures by persons of acknowledged eminence in science, literature, art, commerce, and every department of business and professional life. These witnesses have declared in the most explicit terms that the preparation is a safeguard against epidemics, a sovereign remedy for dyspepsia, a valuable antibilious medicine, a promoter of appetite a genial and harmless stimulant, a good acclimating medicine, a strengthener of the nerves, a general invigorant, a protection against the deleterious effects of malaria and impure water, and that it imparts a degree of vigor and activity to the vital forces which is not communicated by any other of the tonics and stomachics in use. Under these circumstances the self-preservative law of nature should teach every rational person who, either by reason of inherent debility or in consequence of exposure to unwholesome influences, is in peril of losing the greatest of all temporal blessings health, the importance of using the Bitters as a defensive medicine. Dyspeptics who neglect to give it a trial are simply their own enemies. It is guaranteed to cure indigestion in all its forms, and the bilious and nervous will find nothing in the whole range of officinal and proprietary medicines which will afford them the same relief.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR
To its Natural Vitality and Color.

Advancing years, sickness, care, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray; either of them disposes it to fall off prematurely, and either effect is unsightly and unpleasant to behold. DR. AYER'S consummate skill has produced an antidote for these deformities, which has won gratitude for him from multitudes of women and men. His HAIR VIGOR sometimes reproduces lost hair; and always restores to faded and gray hair its natural color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. The comparatively few bald and gray heads, that we now see, are those who have not yet discovered the virtues of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR for renewing the hair. The fresh and youthful hair we see on older heads is often the product of his art. If you are disfigured, or made old, austere and ugly, by gray hair, restore its youthful color, and with it your features to their original softness and agreeable expression.
As an elegant dressing for beautifying the Hair, it has no superior.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, June 28, 1871.

The demand for loans continues comparatively light, although there is a little more paper offered upon the street. Rates, however, remain unchanged.

In local stocks there is almost nothing at all doing. The demand for number one investment securities, (home bonds and stocks) exceeds the supply.

The New York market shows a further advance in gold and Government Bonds. Gold touched 113⅛, and 5-20's 1867 115½.

The stock market closes pretty well up to yesterday's prices, but was quite heavy at one time during the day. The afternoon rally looks like a sorry attempt of the bulls to convince the outside public that there is some strength in the market, and currency to the stereotyped morning statement "that the market is being oversold so largely that the cliques can mark up prices whenever they see proper." Our private advices do not report "a large line of shorts and all stocks in good borrowing demand." It is true however that orders for stocks at the lowest quotations of the day had to lie over unfilled.

Robinson Bros., No. 78 Fourth avenue, furnish the following comparative quotations of bonds and stocks, from their latest advices by wire:

NEW YORK, June 28, 1871.

Gold strong and higher, opening at 112¾, and closing at 113@113⅛. Higher prices are predicted, as the imports are too large and shipments continue heavy. Loans were made at 1 per cent. Clearances twenty-seven million dollars. Exports to-day, about $350,000. Governments were strong and higher, the advance in gold having assisted the rise. The proposals at the Treasury purchase were for $2,649,300, at from 111.85 to 112.49. Awards one million, at from 111.85 to 111.87.

The stock market opened dull and weak. The Bears soon commenced their hammering and ran prices down from 1 to 2 per cent.; but as has been the case for the past few days the market reacted as soon as the Bears stopped offering them down. The Bulls seem to be waiting quietly for the Bears to put out their short sales. The most active stocks have been Ohios, Reading, Lake Shore, R. Island, Western Union and Union Pacific. It is probable that the market will remain dull until after the Fourth of July when advance through the whole list is anticipated by Bulls as they say the market is largely oversold and they can advance prices whenever they choose. Market closed firm: money abundant at 3 per cent; State Securities dull and unchanged.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, June 28, 1871.

ASHES—Common Soda Ash, 4¼@4⅜; refined do, 4¾@4⅞; Pearls, 8¾@9; Pots, 7½@7¾.

BUTTER—The receipts continue liberal and with no improvement in the demand, the market is weak, though prices are without quotable change; prime to choice, 18@20; medium to good, 14@16; common, 10@12. Grease Butter, 8@9.

BROOM CORN—Very dull, scarcely enough doing to establish quotations.

BEANS—$1,50@2,00 per bushel.

BEESWAX—Quoted at 33@35.

CEMENT—Louisville, $2,50@3,00 per bbl. Rosendale, $4,00@4,50; Calcined Plaster, $4,25 @4,50.

CHEESE—Is reported steady but unchanged—receipts continue liberal; prime Goshen, 13; prime Factory, 12½; Dairy, 10@11.

COUNTRY BACON—Continues very sluggish and the warm weather makes dealers anxious to realize. Country Lard is selling at 9@10.

CORN MEAL—The demand is light and restricted mainly to small lots while prices are unchanged, 80@85 cts per bushel.

CARBON OIL—There is a fair jobbing trade but prices are easier, though, as yet, not quotably lower; we continue to quote standard brands at 23¼@24.

CANNED GOODS—Tomatoes scarce and in demand; standard brands sell readily at $2½. Peaches, $2 for 2 lb, and $3.25@3,50 for 3 lb cans. Corn, $2,50.

EGGS—Strictly fresh eggs, in good condition, may be quoted at 18, but old stock, and the bulk of the offerings are of this kind, are not wanted at any price.

FLOUR—Continues to come in freely, particularly spring wheat, and the stock of this kind must be larger at present than it has been for some time past. The demand, however, is only moderate, as buyers generally seem confident of lower prices, and, in consequence, are buying just as little as they can help. Prices remain unchanged, $7,00@7,25 for good to choice spring extras; $7,30@7,40 for choice Minnesotas and $7,00@7,50 for red winter wheat—we can report a sale of 100 bbls, to arrive, at $7. Rye Flour, in a small way, $6.

FRUITS—Green apples are coming in more freely, and the market is easier with a drooping tendency; we now quote at $3@5 per bbl, as to quality. Turkey Prunes, 10c; French, 12@12½; Layer Raisins, $3,00 per box; Valencia, 12½@13 cts per lb. Oranges and Lemons, $7,00 @7,50 per box—repacked. Currants, 10 cts.

GRAIN—The receipts of Wheat continue very meagre, but the supply nevertheless seems to be fully up to the demand, and prices remain unchanged, $1.40@1,43 for good to prime red and 8@10 cts more for white. The Chicago Tribune of Tuesday says: "The amount of wheat taken out of store last week was scarcely equal to half the receipts and the shipping demand continues light, though New York and Brooklyn have only about 1,000,000 bu in store, and are shipping out more than they receive. The fact is that operators generally expect the new crop to be so plentiful as to bring down the price to the neighborhood of $1.10 per bu, or less, and they are buying no more at present prices than they are obliged to do. Hence the principle inquiry is from the short interest, the millers buying just enough to supply the needs of the hour, while those needs are considerably less than they would be if corn were not so cheap, as compared with wheat." Oats quiet and the feeling among operators is very conflicting; some are inclined to be very bullish, while others are more conservative, and are operating very cautiously; we now quote at 60@61 buying, and 63@64½ selling—small lots in store, 65@68c. There is an improved demand for corn and prices are tending upward; we are reported sales of mixed ear, in bulk at 67; mixed shelled may be quoted at 70 and prime yellow at 72. Thirty car loads of good mixed shelled were contracted for on Tuesday to be delivered at the rate of one car each week at 70—in bulk on track. Rye is scarce but there does not seem to be much inquiry for it; prices unchanged at $1,00@1,05.

GROCERIES—Coffees continue dull but unchanged; importers, however, seem to think that, notwithstanding the stock is unusually large and increasing, that a goodly portion must soon be wanted for the interior, and that a better market is near at hand. Molasses and syrups continue dull. Sugars steady though devoid of excitement and unchanged in price; Rice is quiet and unchanged—sales of Carolina in New York, at 8¾@9¾.

COFFEE—Fancy Rio, 18½; Prime, 17½; Good, 16½; Fair, 16; Roasting, 15½@16.

SYRUPS AND DRIPS—White Honey, 72; Havemyer & Elders, 72; Silver Drips, 60; other grades, 45@55.

SUGARS—Choice New Orleans, 11¼; prime, 11¼ good, 10¾; fully fair, 10¾; Porto Rico Sugars, 10½@11¼; Cuba, 10@11; Demarara, 11¾ @12¼.

REFINED SUGARS—Hard Sugars, 13¾; A Coffee, 12¾; "B," 12½; Extra C, 12½; C, yellow, 12¼.

Fancy, $1 50; good, $1 25; fair, $1 10; Imperial Fancy, $1 40; good, $1 25; fair, $1; Oolong fancy, $1 25; good, 80cts; fair, 60@70c; Souchong fancy, $1 20; good, 90c; fair, 70@80c, Japan Fancy, $1; good, 90c; fair, 75c.

HAY—Continues scarce and the recent advance is still maintained; sales of baled on wharf at $25@30. Wagon hay is quotable at $25@35.

HIDES—Green Salted, 10½@11¼; Green Butcher's, 8; Dry Flint, 21@22; Green Calf Skins, 14@15; Green Salted Calf, 17@18.

HUSKS—Quoted at 2¾@2¾ cts.

HEMP—Rough Kentucky, $175 per ton; dressed, 14 cts per lb.

LIME—Sales of Cleveland at $2,25 per bbl and eastern at $1.75.

MILL FEED—We can report an occasional sale of middlings at $1,70@1,75. Not much inquiry for coarse feed.

OILS—Lard Oil is still quoted at 75 for No. 1 extra—78@80 in a small way.

PEA NUTS—Quoted at 10½@11 cts.

POULTRY—Offerings of chickens small, though there is no advance in prices; 70@75 cts per pair by the coop.

PROVISIONS—Plain Shoulders, 7@7¼ cts; sugar cured do. 10@10½ cts; sides, 9c for ribbed and 10 for clear; Breakfast Bacon, 13; sugar cured Hams, 14½@15. Lard, 11 in tes and 12 in kegs. Mess Pork, $16,50@17,00. Dried Beef, 18@19.

POTATOES—The receipts of new are increasing and a decline in prices is confidently expected within the next few days.

SEEDS—There is nothing doing in seeds. Flaxseed would sell but there is none offering.

SUMAC—Sales Tennessee Sumac at 4½ cts.

WILLOWS—Sales Kentucky willows at 10.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, June 28, 1871.

There was considerable manouvering in oil circles, which is usually the case when settlement day is near at hand, but, after all, there was but little done; the market was very unsettled, prices fluctuating every few minutes, and while there were an unusually large number of offers made to buy and sell, there were but very few sales effected. The shipments of refined have been unusually heavy this week, verging close on to 6,000 bbls yesterday and the day before, and receipts of crude are also large running from 4,000@5,000 bbls per day for some time past.

CRUDE.

There was a sale of 1,000 bbls June, early in the day, at 13⅛, but in the afternoon it was offered freely at 13⅛, without finding buyers. Seller all year, nominal at 12¾; seller July, offered at 13⅛. Sales at Parker at $5,00@5,02½; also, 5,000 bbls seller 60 days, on creek, at $4,75. Oil City, nominal at $5,10@5,15.

REFINED.

Market dull and prices unsettled; in the afternoon June was quoted at 25⅜, and August was reported as having been sold at 26, with more offered at same figure. There is some inquiry for lines, but refiners generally, in consequence of the high price of crude as compared with refined, refuse to sell.

PITTSBURGH CATTLE MARKET.

CENTRAL YARDS, June 28, 1871.

CATTLE.

The receipts, as compared with the same time last week, are not so large, and with an average demand, and a pretty full attendance of buyers, the market is fairly active, while prices have undergone no quotable change. The sales thus far foot up about 780 head against 774 same time last week, and at noon to-day the number unsold was comparatively small; average quality fully up to the usual standard, and in this respect buyers have no reason to complain, no difficulty in making selections. As will be seen by reference to the report of sales, the number sold above 6 cts was small, and nothing but strictly No. 1 would command anything above that figure; last week, one car load of extra fat, smooth steers brought 6⅝, and we presume that the same quality would bring the same figure this week—however there are very few buyers at that price, and a small number would be sufficient to satisfy the demand.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

The market is reported slow and offish, prices ¼ lower, and common grades very dull; the receipts are not large, but the eastern markets are reported dull, and to this mainly may be attributed the decline. It is possible, and even probable that the market may improve before the close of the week unless the receipts should be large, of which there is not much prospect.

HOGS.

With diminished receipts and an average demand, the market has ruled stronger this week, and as compared with Saturday, prices have advanced 20@25 cts per cwt; we now quote Philadelphia hogs at 4,60@4,75, and Yorkers at 4,40@4,50. The feeling is a little weak to-day, and should receipts increase, the probability is that the advance will be almost if not altogether lost before the close of the week.

Dry Goods.

NEW YORK, June 28.—There is little or no change to notice in this department of trade. Business on the whole is quiet, but the available stocks offering are small, and prices favor sellers. The river continues to recede slowly with 3 feet 2 inches in the channel by pier mark. Very heavy rain on Tuesday night; showery last evening, and the prospects for more water are encouraging.

No arrivals excepting the Monongahela river packets.

The Juniata departed for Cincinnati with about all the freight she could take on the water. Thos. Morris is her pilot.

The Messenger departed for St. Louis. Pilots—Capts. Jesse and Samuel Dean.

Belle Rowland will probably take her departure for St. Louis to-day.

The Katie P. Kountz is reported laid up at Sioux City, and Capt. Mason is on the sick list.

—A Memphis special to the Cincinnati Commercial says: Samuel Ayles, clerk on the Natchez, who was arrested and bailed some time ago upon the charge of having passed a counterfeit one-hundred dollar greenback, at a preliminary examination, to-day was honorably acquitted. Joe Banfil, well known as a clerk and captain on several packets here a few years since, was arrested to-day, at Grand Junction, for committing a fraud by filling up a blank check and drawing two hundred dollars thereon from a bank in this city last week.

—The Mound City Journal has the following: "The great transfer boat for the Alton and Chicago Railroad Company is rapidly approaching completion. She has been named the J. C. McMullen. She is the largest and best built transfer boat on the Western rivers. Her dimensions and track room are sufficient to accommodate at one time a passenger train of twelve cars. O. D. ORDINANCES.

AN ORDINANCE—Providing for the establishment of a Board of Health for the City of Allegheny.

SEC. 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Allegheny, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That as soon as practicable after the passage of this ordinance, it shall be the duty of the Councils to go into joint session, for the purpose of electing one citizen from each of the nine wards of the city, who shall constitute a Board of Health of the City of Allegheny.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Clerk of Select Council to notify the persons so elected, and fix the time for holding the first meeting of the Board, which meeting shall be for the purpose of organization.

SEC. 3. The officers of the Board shall consist of a President and Secretary, who shall be chosen by a majority of the members of the Board from their own number. It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings. In his absence the Board can select one member to preside temporarily. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum, and in the event of a vacancy in the Board, from any cause, the Board shall fill said vacancy until next meeting of Councils, provided the appointee is a resident of the ward in which the vacancy occurs. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a correct minute of all the proceedings of the Board, and perform such other duties as may be imposed upon him.

SEC. 4. The Board shall sit upon their own adjournment, as they shall deem necessary, but shall meet at least once a week, between the first of June and the first of October, in every year; also when the Board shall be specially convened by order of the President or any two of the members.

SEC. 5. The Board shall have the power to make such Rules and Regulations as may, from time to time, be deemed necessary to secure greater efficiency in the administration of the affairs of the Board, provided that said Rules and Regulations shall not conflict with any of the provisions of this ordinance or existing ordinances.

SEC. 6. That it shall and may be lawful for the Board of Health, when they shall have reason to believe, from the report of any physicians appointed by said Board, that any person within the City of Allegheny is afflicted with any contagious disease dangerous to the community, to take measures for preventing the spreading of the contagion by forbidding and preventing all communications with the infected house or family, except by means of physicians, nurses or messengers, to convey the necessary advice, medicine and provisions to the afflicted, and exercise all such other powers as the circumstances of the case shall require, and as shall, in their judgment, be most conducive to the public good, with the least private injury.

SEC. 7. That it shall be the duty of the said Board to have all objects which may have a tendency to endanger the health of the citizens to be removed or corrected, as they shall deem necessary for the health of the citizens. And if the owner or owners or occupiers of any premises on which such nuisance shall be found, refuse or neglect, on due notice, to remove or correct the same, he, she or they so refusing or neglecting shall forfeit and pay for every such offence any sum not less than five nor more than twenty dollars, to be recovered and applied to the use of said Board.

SEC. 8. That it shall be the duty of the said Board of Health for the city of Allegheny to cause all offensive or putrid substances and all nuisances which may have a tendency, in their opinion, to endanger the health of the citizens, to be removed from the streets, lanes, alleys, highways, wharves, docks or any other part or parts of the city of Allegheny, and to cause such of the privies within the limits aforesaid to be emptied or corrected with lime or otherwise, at the expense of the individuals who are the owners of the houses to which the said privies are appurtenant, as the said Board shall from time to time deem necessary for the health of the inhabitants thereof, and if the owners or occupiers of the premises on which any nuisance may be found and the owners of the house to which the said privies are appurtenant, shall on due notice thereof refuse or neglect to have the same immediately removed, emptied or corrected, as aforesaid, he, she or they refusing or neglecting, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of twenty five dollars and the expense of cleansing.

SEC. 9. The Board of Health shall designate and provide a place or places, where are to be received and deposited the contents of all privies as they shall from time to time be cleaned and emptied and all offensive substances found upon the public highway.

SEC. 10. That so soon as the Board of Health have provided, as aforesaid, a place or places for the purposes aforesaid, and are prepared to receive therein the contents of privies and other offensive substances, it shall be their duty to make proclamation thereof, by advertisement in the official newspapers of the city of Allegheny, to be continued at least thirty days; and from and after the expiration of the said thirty days during which said advertisement has been made, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons employed in cleansing any privy or privies within the bounds aforesaid to deposit or cause to be deposited the contents or any part of the contents thereof in any other place or places than such as shall be designated by said Board of Health in their said proclamation; and if any person or persons shall deposit or cause to be deposited such contents, or any part thereof, in any other place or places than as aforesaid, without the consent of the said Board of Health, such person or persons shall forfeit and pay for every such offense the sum of twenty dollars.

SEC. 11. That no person shall remove or cause to be removed the contents or any part thereof of any privy-well until he shall have first obtained a permit from the said Board of Health, which permit shall specify the time within which the contents of the privy may be removed, and the place to which the said contents shall be conveyed and deposited; and if any person shall remove, cause or allow, or assist in removing the contents or any part thereof of any privy-well before he has obtained such permit, or at any other time than that specified in the said permit, or shall convey to and deposit, or assist in conveying or depositing the same in any other place than that described in the permit, he shall, for any of the aforesaid acts, forfeit and pay to the Board of Health the sum of twenty dollars.

SEC. 12. That hereafter no person shall be permitted to remove or cause to be removed any portion of the contents of a privy-well within the limits aforesaid, excepting in carts or vehicles so constructed as to be water-tight, and securely covered on the top; and if any person shall remove, cause or permit to be removed the contents, or any part thereof of any privy, excepting in carts or vehicles constructed as above, he shall forfeit and pay to the Board of Health the sum of twenty dollars; and any constable, police officer or watchman, is hereby authorized to seize and detain all such carts, horses and implements and apparatus actually taken with any person or persons detected in any violation of said resolutions and all other laws on the same subject.

SEC. 13. That no person shall permit or have any offensive water or other liquid or substance on his premises or grounds to the prejudice of life or health, whether for use in trade or otherwise. And every such privy or other existing nuisance shall be kept cleanly and wholesome, and be so conducted in every particular as not to be offensive or prejudicial to life or health.

SEC. 14. That no part of the contents of or substances from any sink, privy, run, cesspool, nor any manure, ashes, garbage, rubbish, or dirt, shall be by any person flung or allowed to or drop into or remain in any street, place or public place within the city limits.

SEC. 15. That no butchers' offal or garbage, nor any dead animals, nor any putrid or stinking animal or vegetable matter, shall be thrown by any person or allowed to go into any street, place or upon any ground or premises to the city.

SEC. 16. That every physician shall report to the Board of Health, in writing, every person having a contagious disease, (and the state of his or her disease, and his or her place of dwelling and name, if known,) which such physician has prescribed for or attended for the first time since having such a contagious disease during any part of the preceding twenty-four hours; but not more than two reports shall be required in one week concerning the same person; but every attending or practicing physician thereat shall see that such report is or has been made by some attending physician.

SEC. 17. That it shall be the duty of every person knowing of any individual in said city sick of any contagious disease, (where such person shall have reason to think such individual as neglected, or not properly cared for, and to avoid giving said disease to others,) and the duty of every physician hearing of any such sick person, who he shall have reason to think requires the attention of this Board, to at once report the facts to the attention of the proper officers in regard to the disease, condition and dwelling place or position of such sick person.

SEC. 18. That every person, being the parent or guardian, or having the care, custody or control of any minor or other individual, shall (to the extent of any means, power and authority of said guardian or other person that could properly be used or exerted for such purpose) cause and procure such minor or individual to be promptly, frequently and effectively vaccinated, that such minor or individual shall not take or be liable to take the small pox.

Keep Your Houses Clean,
AND
BY USING THE
Wellman Patent Reflector
STOVE AND GRATE.
Which Stand Without a Rival.

The WELLMAN STOVE is furnished with the "REFLECTOR GRATE," and possesses all the advantages of an open fire place; it is specially adapted to houses where the flues are too small to admit a grate, and affords all the comforts of a CHEERFUL OPEN FIRE.
1st. As a radiator of heat it has double the intensity of any other grate.
2d. It is unquestionably the most cleanly—no soot or ashes escaping into the room—which, in the ordinary Grate, proves so detrimental to carpets and furniture.
3d. The combustion is perfect. There is no waste in unburnt cinders—every ounce of the fuel is so completely consumed, that nothing remains but the finest ashes.
4th. As an economizer of fuel—there being an actual saving of at least 25 per cent.
5th. It is highly ornamental.
6th. It is set so deep in the chimney, that it is much safer, and also less liable to puff in windy weather.
7th. A slight motion of the shaker cleanses the entire fire, and causes it to burn with great brilliancy and intensity of heat.
Samples may be seen and references had at the store of W. BARNES, corner of 3d avenue and Market street, Pittsburgh; W. F. GOODWIN, 66 Federal street, Allegheny, or at the FOUNDRY, corner Duquesne Way and Water street, Pittsburgh.
Parties who are building, or who contemplate changing Grates, are respectfully requested to examine "The Wellman." Satisfaction guaranteed in all cases.

HOME NEWS.

As we have received two or three notes complaining of the lateness the GAZETTE has been served to our city readers the two last mornings by our carriers, in justice to them we should state that the fault was not theirs. Tuesday morning the Baltimore excursionists did not arrive till 2 o'clock A. M., and the banquet Tuesday night did not close till 1 A. M. These occasions being of great interest to all Pittsburghers, we detained our forms from going to press an hour and a half later than usual, so as to give full reports of both occasions. We hope that our account of those important events will suffice for an apology, and assure our readers they will find our carriers on time this and every other morning, unless some of these important business gatherings prevent us, which happens very seldom.

Suits for Slander.—In the District Court one Sarah Jane Kent, by her father, Ephraim Kent, has instituted proceedings for damages against Jesse Clark and Emery Kelly, for slander. The alleged slanderous words are of a character to greatly damage the reputation of the young lady for chastity. Capias issued in each case. The parties reside in Robinson township.

Improvement Trust Company.—The books of the above company will be open at their office, No. 75 Fourth avenue, on this (Thursday) evening, from seven to nine. Parties wishing to subscribe to the stock can do so. The attention of the industrial classes is especially called to the opportunity here offered. The stock is being rapidly taken up, but a small portion remaining.

Capias Issued.—At the instance of Charles Armstrong et al., parties doing business as Armstrong, Dickson & Co., a capias was issued by the District Court for Samuel M. Kier, John Foster, Samuel McManus, Thomas Rogers and Andrew Boyle. The three last named defendants are coal miners, and it is charged that, at the instance and request of Messrs. Kier and Foster, they did enter upon a certain tract of land in Penn township, belonging to the plaintiffs, and did dig and mine the coal underlying said tract. Bail required—$500.

Action for Damages.—In the Court of Common Pleas, yesterday, a capias was issued for Benjamin Catley, at the instance of Joseph Dyson, who claims damages in the sum of one thousand dollars alleged to have been sustained by the said plaintiff by reason of an aggravated assault and battery committed on him by the defendant. It is alleged that defendant struck plaintiff on the head with an iron bar, inflicting a wound four inches in length, causing the said plaintiff "great bodily pain and suffering, and great expense and trouble," &c.

In noticing the magnificent floral decorations at the City Hall, on the occasion of the Municipal Banquet, we erred in crediting the work to John Murdoch & Son—a firm which is not now in existence. To Messrs. John R. & A. Murdoch, whose establishment is located opposite the Postoffice, on Smithfield street, belongs the praise for the exquisite taste and skill which made the hall bloom with so much beauty, and won universal and hearty commendation from visitors, as well as our own people, who have ere this been aware of the lead which is taken in horticultural matters by this enterprising firm.

University Excursion.

This morning at 8:20 the University excursion party, consisting of the Trustees, Faculty, Alumni and students of the Western University leave the Union Depot for a trip over Allegheny Valley Railroad as far as Chatauqua Lake. President Philips, with a noble generosity, has placed at the disposal of [illegible] a special train consisting of two cars [illegible] locomotive. Such an act is a fitting compliment to a home institution, and is worthy of the highest commendation.

Fatal Accident.

A young man named Nicholas Powley, a puddler at Painter & Sons' mills, in West Pittsburgh, met with an accident Tuesday which resulted in the loss of life. He was walking along the track of the Pan Handle Railroad to his work, about noon, when a train came along. He stepped on to the opposite track, when he was struck by the express going west before he was aware of his danger. The cars passed over both legs below the knees, severing the limbs. He was carried to his home in Union borough, where one of his legs was amputated above the knee. Death, however, resulted about midnight. Deceased leaves a wife and one child.

Music in the Park.

According to announcement, the Mozart Quadrille Band, one of the most popular orchestras in this city, discoursed some of their finest music in the new Second Avenue Park last evening. A large number of ladies and gentlemen were congregated and evinced the delight which they felt by the rapturous applause awarded to the performers. The Mozart Quadrille Band is an old organization, and very popular owing the fact that they have acquired a proficiency in the art of music, which similar organizations rarely achieve. Mr. Joseph McMurtry is agent for the band, and Mr. Richard McElravey the accomplished leader.

An Enterprising Firm.

We paid a visit yesterday to the enterprising and extensive produce and commission warehouse of Messrs. Voigt, Mahood & Co., 257 Liberty street, to examine the workings of Baxter's upright steam engine, a neat little machine, occupying little more space than an ordinary heating stove, and in its movements as noiseless as a sewing machine, to which is attached a patent elevator by which the clumsy hogshead and the tiny box can be moved with equal ease and rapidity from cellar to garret. By this arrangement a vast amount of manual toil is saved. We congratulate this firm on their enterprise and progress.

Personal.

We were pleased yesterday to meet our friend, Mr. George Charles, editor of the Cumberland Daily News—one of the brightest journals of Western Maryland—who accompanied the excursionists. Mr. Charles is a genial, companionable gentleman, and wields withal a facile pen, by which the Cumberlanders will hereafter learn something of the "Smoky City" and its people.

The representatives of the Pittsburgh Press are indebted to Mr. Potts, the obliging private Secretary of Mr. Garrett, for many courtesies. Mr. Potts is an accomplished phonographer, and is also an experienced journalist and clever gentleman with whom it is a pleasure to have intercourse.

Coal Miner Killed.

A fatal accident occurred Tuesday night, at Ireland Station, Allegheny Valley Railroad, about eight miles from the city, a coal miner from Sandy Creek being the victim.

The Coroner held an inquest yesterday afternoon, at which it was ascertained that the name of the deceased was William Haley; that he was a coal miner and resided at Sandy Creek, Penn township; that he came to the city Tuesday morning and became very much intoxicated; that he got on the six o'clock, P. M., accommodation train, and upon the arrival of the train at Ireland Station he got off and fell on the main track, where he was struck by the cow-catcher and his skull fractured. He died in a few minutes. A verdict was rendered accordingly.

Eleventh Ward Mission.

At the late meeting of the Presbytery of Monongahela held in Dr. Grier's church, Robinson's Run, the Eleventh ward United Presbyterian Mission was taken under care of Presbytery, and Mr. William H. Knox appointed to take charge of it.

The following scale of supplies has been made out for the month of July, and the first Sabbath in August:

First Sabbath of July—Rev. J. R. Kerr.
Second Sabbath of July—Rev. Mr. Coleman.
Third Sabbath of July—Rev. W. H. Andrews.
Fourth Sabbath of July—Rev. J. S. Sands.
Fifth Sabbath of July—Rev. G. A. B. Robinson.
First Sabbath of August—Rev. J. C Boyd.

Services are held every Sabbath evening in the Moorhead school house, Granville street, Eleventh ward at 7½ o'clock. All are invited.

Counterfeiting Case.

Yesterday John T. Fourl was arrested and taken before United States Commissioner Gamble, charged on the oath of D. R. Egey, with having in his possession and passing counterfeit notes on the Poughkeepsie National Bank, in this city in August last. Egey is in jail on a charge of bigamy. Fourl is mixed up in it some way, and has been corresponding with Egey's present wife. He hails from Baltimore. While here a year ago he professed to be a devout member of the Young Mens' Christian Association. They soon discovered, however, that he was not very reliable, and denied him admission to their rooms. District Attorney Swoope directed his discharge because the Poughkeepsie counterfeit money was not printed and put in circulation until January last. This leaves Egey in the unpleasant position of being suspected of deliberate perjury, in order to have Fourl locked up and trying to keep him from being too intimate with his wife.

The Atlantic Mutual Life Insurance Company.

W. D. Huntley, Esq., General agent of the Atlantic Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Albany, New York, is in the city at the office No. 96½, Fourth avenue, with the view of selecting some competent general agent to conduct the affairs of his prosperous company in this locality. The Atlantic Mutual is one of the very best and safest life insurance companies in the United States, and has features connected with it which must commend it to the favor of the public. Every policy which it issues is registered, under a special act of the New York Legislature, and that State becomes the gurantee and security for its payment on the demise of the assured. This security will be appreciated as no matter what misfortune may befall the company the policy holder is absolutely secure and safe, having a great and rich commonwealth standing as the Company's endorser. The Atlantic Mutual, however, is in itself very safe and wealthy and aside from its speciality of registered bonds, is one of the staunchest life insurance companies in the country. All its policies are non-forfeitable and its payment system is just and reasonable. Such of our readers who have not any insurance upon their lives should favor this company with due and proper consideration.

PRESIDENT GARRETT.

Speech of the President of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company at the Banquet in City Hall, Tuesday Evening, June 27, 1871.

[The omission of President Garrett's speech in the report of the banquet in yesterday's GAZETTE arose from the fact that the author desired to revise the report of his remarks, a task which he was unable to accomplish in time for yesterday's edition.—ED.]

In response to the sentiment, "The President of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company," Mr. Garrett spoke as follows:

MR. MAYOR AND GENTLEMEN: Can so great a corporation as the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company have made a mistake? That company has claimed to represent and control Pennsylvania, and from it the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company has had such antagonisms as to show that we are not welcomed by it in Pennsylvania or Pittsburgh. But it is very evident from your demonstrations that you citizens of Pittsburgh and the Pennsylvania Company are not one. That company has made a mistake. Your cordial and enthusiastic greetings prove it. The difference between the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and the citizens of Western Pennsylvania is most conspicuous. This earnest welcome proves it—pleasantly and emphatically.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company has incurred the censure of the great Pennsylvania Railroad Company. The distinguished President of that company has charged the Baltimore and Ohio Company in constructing the Connellsville Road "with trespassing upon his company's preserves." (I quote his language.) We felt that the people of Western Pennsylvania and of the great city of Pittsburgh were entitled to a competing railroad. We have not felt that the people of this great city were to carry out the figure of President Thompson—legitimate game to be forever preserved for his special use. [Laughter and applause.]

Another allegation has been made against the Baltimore and Ohio Company. President Thompson accuses the Baltimore and Ohio Company of Knight-errantry in building the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Road; but, my friends, in constructing that great work, have we been fighting a wind mill? [Cries of "No; no."] After many great battles and vicissitudes, yet steadily fighting on this line, have we not at least carried the very citadel of the great monopoly—the castle of its strength, and are we not here to relieve the manacled giant, the great city of Pittsburgh? Are we not rapidly striking off its fetters? Already it feels the impetus of its new power—that strength which springs from the competition of two great railways for its business? In the few weeks which have elapsed since the opening of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad, how vastly have your interests been advanced. Your manufacturers and merchants, your producers and consumers have already realized a reduction in the cost of transportation between Pittsburgh and Baltimore of 28 per cent. [Applause.] Already your great petroleum interests, the great trade to which your city is geographically entitled, has realized the vast benefit which results from a decrease of charges from $1 35 per barrel to 80 cents per barrel, more than 40 per cent. [Great applause.] The Pennsylvania Railroad Company indicted the Baltimore and Ohio Company in its last annual report very gravely for alleged most serious misdemeanors. It alleged that "the Northern Central Railroad Company fell for a time under the control of the Presidents of the Baltimore and Ohio and the Philadelphia and Reading Railroads," and that the Pennsylvania Company could not accomplish its objects, and it congratulated itself upon purchasing a majority of the stock of that company and of controlling it. It is unfortunate for President Thompson that he records a matter of his imagination and not a fact. The Presidents of these Companies never had the slightest control or ownership of the Northern Central Railroad. It is most true that citizens of Baltimore believed that road to be most grossly mismanaged, and that it failed, after having received large subsidies from the State of Maryland and city of Baltimore to increase and develop trade that should have been fostered. Those citizens believed that whilst the Baltimore and Ohio Company has developed the bituminous coal trade to nearly one and a half million of tons per year, the Northern Central should, instead of furnishing a niggardly supply of anthracite coal at excessively high freights, have followed the example of the Baltimore and Ohio Company and developed a great anthracite coal trade at Baltimore also. And the President of the Baltimore and Ohio road still believes this to be the true policy of that road, and hopes that the Pennsylvania road may yet be aroused to perform its duty in this important respect. The Baltimore and Ohio road is accused of refusing to sell through tickets on its Washington road for the Pennsylvania road, or to check their passenger's baggage, and of demanding prohibitory rates for freight. But what are the facts in connection with our Washington road of not having furnished you the convenience of through tickets for your baggage?

For years past the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company has tendered to the Pennsylvania Company all those conveniences for the use of Pittsburgh and the Northwest. As far back as 1867, when my friend Mr. Johnson represented Maryland in the United States Senate, similar assertions were made on behalf of the Pennsylvania Railroad. For the purpose of correcting those statements the President of the Baltimore and Ohio Road addressed the following letter to Mr. Johnson:

BALTIMORE, 29th March, 1867.

MY DEAR SIR: I am obliged for your esteemed favor of 27th instant.

Baggage is checked at our Washington station for Philadelphia, New York, etc., and for all points in the West by our main stem.

The complaints to which you refer are doubtless in reference to travel via Harrisburg and the Pennsylvania road, as by all other lines the arrangements are as perfect as practicable.

You are aware that the Pennsylvania Company is not merely a rival, but a hostile interest. The Baltimore and Ohio Company can furnish no through checks for baggage by the Northern Central Road, which is controlled by the Pennsylvania Road, except arrangements be made with the officers of the latter company. This company has for years been entirely willing to make the requisite arrangements to check baggage through from all points desired by the Northern Central and Pennsylvania roads, making one proviso: which is usual, under similar circumstances, viz: that if tickets are sold and baggage is checked to our Washington Station, the Pennsylvania Road shall cease to maintain separate and antagonistic offices in Washington. This reasonable and proper arrangement has not been accepted although I have repeatedly called the attention of the leading Directors of the Northern Central Road to its necessity and propriety.

I fully accord that the public should be accommodated upon this subject, and I am equally satisfied that the Northern Central Company would cordially co-operate, if not adversely controlled by the Pennsylvania Company. It would, of course, be useless to cause this company to maintain additional rival offices to meet the needless expensiveness of the present system in Washington if tickets from all points, by either road, at the option of the passenger, could be obtained at our Washington station.

As the fault of the failure to effect the proper arrangement lies entirely with the Pennsylvania Road, I will be obliged if you will make the requisite explanations to such parties as are interested. I am, with great regard, very truly yours,

[Signed] J. W. GARRETT, President.
Hon. REVERDY JOHNSON, U. S. S., Washington.

This letter was read by Senator Johnson in the Senate, published at the time, and no reply whatever made by the Pennsylvania Company.

In reference to freights, the charges of the company between Baltimore and Washington for heavy goods, including terminal expenses, was but ten cents per one hundred pounds.

These, however, gentlemen, were minor wrongs. The unpardonable sin had not yet been committed. President Thompson proceeded with his indictment thus:

"These disadvantages were submitted to until the Baltimore and Ohio Company determined to extend a branch of their line to Pittsburgh, when further forebearances, it seemed, would be construed into weakness, and steps were at once taken under the auspices of the Northern Central Railroad Company, to build an independent line from Baltimore to the Potomac at Washington."

The knight errant, the shameless trespasser upon the preserves of the Pennsylvania Company, must be punished. It would be "weakness" to forbear further.

The crowning act of wickedness of the Baltimore and Ohio Company has been to give the people of Pittsburgh the Connellsville Road. Must not the Baltimore and Ohio Company be punished for that terrible act, for constructing this great highway to the West? And what is to be the punishment? "The Pennsylvania Company are to build another road from Baltimore to Washington, and they threaten to build still other roads from Washington to the South. The Pennsylvania Company does not understand our appreciation of the spirit of the age, or they would understand that we welcome them in building railroads for the South. [Great applause.] We most earnestly, and in all fraternity, desire to see those desolated States restored to power, to commercial and financial strength, to equal honor and full prosperity, as of yore, under our great and glorious Constitution and Union. [Applause.]

The greatest leverage to secure strength and power is the great lines of competing railways. I therefore cordially trust, gentlemen, that the Pennsylvania Road will make these improvements—will boldly meet the Baltimore and Ohio Company in an honorable and vigorous competition for the great trade of the South.

How magnificent are the operations of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. On a capital of but thirty-three millions it has built up the unparalleled and splendid amount of indebtedness and obligations on capital estimated at more than three hundred millions of dollars.

I trust the grandeur of its career may not be checked until it carries out, with its other schemes, that for cementing great complete lines of railway through the South.

Baltimore entertains broad views. Our community and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company have labored to perfect Southern lines of railway communication, and will be at central points in the South, so as to dictate low tariffs to Baltimore, and thus control, as it has already done, the lines of the Pennsylvania railroad in the West. Their proposed lines in the South for the advancement of its trade and the increase of its commercial power and importance, and, my friends, we desire to join you in building another great line of railway in the West. [Cheers.] We do not fear competition, but enter upon it with confidence.

We have faith in a large business at low rates, and results have proven that our views are not chimerical. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company has built up and supported by the investment of its earnings, great lines of competing railways—lines in the South, in the Southwest, in the Central West, and now in completing the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Road embraces Pittsburgh in cordial and mutually advantageous bonds. The fetters are stricken off on your trades from Pittsburgh to the East. We desire to release you from the manacles on your trade from Pittsburgh to the lakes and the great Northwest. We are prepared to join you in building promptly a line from Pittsburgh to the lakes and the great Northwest. [Long continued applause.] One of your most distinguished citizens has said to me that the Pennsylvania Railroad is making a great deal of money by its lease of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Road. After the heavy watering of the stock of that road prior to the lease by an increase of its nominal capital seventy per cent., the Pennsylvania road agreed to pay seven per cent. on the increase aggregate—and it is boasted that the Pennsylvania road, after paying seven per cent. on this aggregate capital, made a million of dollars during last year. We wish to emancipate you and the regions served by this road from paying these prodigious profits. We want your giant capacities developed in the West as well as in the East. The Baltimore and Ohio Company has constantly, faithfully and successfully labored to build up its lake connections until the citizens of Cincinnati, Louisville, Chicago and throughout the great States of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois are interested in Baltimore as their most economical entrepot.

The great city of the Chesapeake tenders you its services and conveniences and economies as a competitor with New York. How deeply vast regions are now interested in the progress and development of Baltimore. New York must always be a great city. It must continue to increase and prosper. New England, Canada, the Empire State, a large portion of the West and much of the South will always transact business with New York. But New York is a city on Manhattan Island, and its capacity for commerce is not unlimited. But what is the limit to the progress of this great country? What limit to its increasing productions—to its commerce, wealth, population—population by natural progress and by emigration—day by day and year by year filling especially the teeming West? Will not the vast increase of population and commercial interchanges demand additional avenues to the East, and the best economies and advantages for import and export? Shall you, through the manipulations of railway operators be deprived of the use of railways at a fair cost? You know, gentlemen, that it is the fixed policy of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad to refuse to make combinations with the great trunk lines of railways. It recognizes that the people have interest in these great iron highways, as well as stockholders or officers. It recognizes its superior advantages, its cheap fuel, its ability to work at low rates, and its shorter lines to tidewater, and it acts independently and legitimately, thus protecting jointly the interests of its terminal cities and the people. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad can work not in the spirit of knight-errantry, but in the spirit of common sense and common justice. It has no middle men and no fast freight lines with which to divide its earnings. Baltimore has already lines of steamers to every leading port in the South and has also lines to Europe. Baltimore is your natural entrepot. Almost at the base of the Alleghenies, it furnishes a seaport 106 miles nearer to you than New York.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company purposes to subscribe at once two millions of dollars to the stock of the Baltimore, Pittsburgh and Chicago Road. It desires immediate and effective action and an additional and competing line will thus be secured for your city to Chicago and intermediate points. It purposes an equal partnership by taking stock—not bonds. Ohio, Indiana and Illinois urge the construction of the road; numerous interests will subscribe largely and freely—single towns as much as $500,000. We ask you to participate with us in making that judicious, useful and valuable investment. The West want your manufactures at lower freights. They want the advantages that Baltimore and Pittsburgh have secured extended to them. They recognize the mutual interests and desire co-operative action.

A large portion of your oil trade has been driven to other cities. The extension of this road will restore and enlarge this great trade. Eighty cents per barrel for the transportation of petroleum will command an immense additional trade for Pittsburgh, and carry it to Baltimore, notwithstanding the mysteries and manipulations of the Pennsylvania Railroad. [Cheers.]

We recognize and pay all proper respect to the great power and capacity of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, but have not our people and yours just cause for complaint against the extraordinary means resorted to by that Company to thwart our legitimate enterprises, adopted to promote public interests, and those particularly of our respective cities?

We cannot but remember that the Pennsylvania Company demands that the Legislature of your State should repeal the charter of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville road, pretending as a reason that the Baltimore and Ohio Company did not intend to build that road at the very period when that Company had determined to prosecute the work vigorously. You doubtless remember when the Senate of Pennsylvania was humiliated by passing the unconstitutional act under the personal superintendency of Vice President Thos. A. Scott, then on the floor, that the Hon. Mr. Hopkins, the Senator from Washington county, shocked by the disgraceful scene, moved that Mr. Scott be asked whether the Senate might have the privilege of adjourning after registering the behests of the Pennsylvania Company. A Senator of your State has informed me that within a few weeks the Pennsylvania Company has again interfered and refused to permit the passage of a bill by your Legislature desired by the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Company, simply to change its name, so that it may properly be represented, being no longer a local road, as the Pittsburgh, Washington and Baltimore road. These are painful historic facts.

May it not be hoped that this will be the last of those disgraceful interferences with proper legislation by that company, and that the grand old Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will treat such efforts, if made hereafter, with deserved indignation, and thus no longer permit the reputation of this noble State to be thus stained.

Our friends who have passed over the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad have seen no inferior line. Low grades have been maintained, tunnels arched and secured, and first-class iron bridges erected.

The road has been supplied with new and additional engines, cars and general equipment.

President Hughart and Chief Engineer Latrobe have performed their duties ably and effectively, and you have to-day a first-class and most effective railroad.

In order to furnish such a road, more money was required than the proceeds of the four millions of mortgage bonds, although these bonds were all placed at ninety per cent. and the accrued interest without any cost of drawbacks or commissions. It was the determination of the Baltimore and Ohio Company to furnish a superior road and therefore has advanced, to accomplish that object, an additional sum of 750,000.

I have detained you too long. I represent the heart of Maryland and the true spirit of the age, in stating these principles of liberal railway management in the interests of the toiling millions which I have expressed to you this evening. And now, my friends, allow me to say to you that Baltimore has sent many of her distinguished and best citizens, representatives of all interests, to show you her earnest appreciation of this marriage celebration between the Iron and the Monumental cities.

You know her liberal action through her municipal authorities repeatedly in aid of this work. You know her appreciation of your city. Our citizens have seen your thousands and tens of thousands of your workmen, full of brain and full of power. Give Baltimore the opportunity to reciprocate your kindness and your splendid hospitalities. We will look for your mechanics, your merchants and manufacturers to return this visit.

We desire to show you the evidences of our progress and commercial strength. Come and give us the privilege of extending to you an earnest, cordial and fraternal welcome to Baltimore and to Maryland. [Prolonged cheers.]

MONONGAHELA AND ALLEGHENY BRANCH.

Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company vs. Alexander King—Petition for Appointment of Viewers.

A short time ago the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company filed petitions in the Court of Common Pleas, praying said Court to appoint viewers to estimate and determine damages along the line of the "Monongahela and Allegheny Branch," between the main line on the Monongahela river and the mouth of Negley's run on the Allegheny river. Last Saturday another petition was filed by the Company's solicitor, Mr. Shiras, as follows:

The Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company vs. Alexander King. In the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny county, No. —, Sept. T., 1871.

After setting forth that they are a body corporate, under certain acts of Assembly, the petitioners represent:

That under and by virtue of an act of Assembly, approved 1st of April, 1868, the said Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company are authorized "to survey, locate and construct one or more branches of railroad extending from any point or points on the main line of their railroad to any point or points in any county through or in which the said main line passes, or in any adjoining county," &c. That in pursuance of said authority the said Company have located and are about to construct a branch from their main line from the mouth of what is commonly called Nine Mile Run on the Monongahela River, to the mouth of Negley's Run on the Allegheny River, to be known as the Monongahela and Allegheny Branch.

The petitioners go on to say that the said branch line has been located through land belonging to Alexander King, and that they cannot agree with the owner as to compensation for damages. They, therefore pray the Court to appoint five persons as viewers to estimate and determine damages.

The Court yesterday appointed George R White, John Fleming, Moses Phillips, David Aiken, Jr., and Capt. Edward Duff as viewers, who will meet on Thursday, July 17, 1871, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

CONVICTED COUNTERFEITERS.

Three Go Over the River To-day.

Three notorious counterfeiters, tried and convicted last week in the United States Court at Williamsport, were brought on by Deputy Marshal Hall and will be sent to the Penitentiary this morning. They are Lew. Roberts, alias John B. Altic, alias Bob, John Stecker and William Swartman. The first, who lived in Lawrenceville in this city, was one of the most extensive dealers in counterfeit money ever arrested. He was sentenced to pay a fine of ten thousand dollars and to undergo an imprisonment at hard labor for twenty years. Stetler is sixty-five years of age, and was arrested in Luzerne county. He was sentenced to eight years' imprisonment. Swartman was also arrested in Luzerne county and was sent up for seven years. United States Attorney Swoope is making sad havoc among the "coney" men. He will soon have the nefarious business broken up in this part of the country.

IMPORTANT SEIZURE.

Two Vessels and Cargoes Seized by the Collector at Erie.

District Attorney Swoope yesterday received the official report of Collector Eaggin, in Erie, of the seizure of two vessels laden with iron ore, the cargoes valued at $7 150 each, which were duly libeled for violation of the revenue laws. The ore was shipped from Rouse's Point, in the District of Champlain, in British vessels to Kingston, Canada, where it was shipped by American vessels to Erie. Under the Act of Congress the cargoes are forfeited absolutely, and the vessels are liable for a penalty of fifty cents per ton.

Music in the Park.

ALLEGHENY, June 28, 1871.

EDITORS GAZETTE: The great anxiety evinced by the citizens, generally, in relation to the continuance of music in the Allegheny Park, and the numerous inquiries to know if it is to cease, influenced the Park Commissioners, at their regular meeting on Tuesday evening last, to instruct the undersigned to give notice that the open air concerts would be continued on each Saturday evening during the summer and early autumn months.

The Commissioners regret that Councils refused to allow all the citizens to contribute to aid in the social and moral effect these popular concerts are sure to produce.

The Commissioners have not appointed or authorized any one to collect money for the purpose of defraying the expense of these open air concerts, nor will they do so.

Those who may wish to contribute toward the payment of music in the Park, can send or hand their subscriptions to Mr. J. R. Oxley, Secretary, at his office in the City Hall, who is instructed to enter all such subscriptions in the "Donation Book."

JAMES PARK, JR.,
President of the Park Commission.

Mr. Connolly, besides attending promptly and expeditiously to all legal business entrusted to him, makes a specialty in the line of procuring patents and attending to any business connected with that Department of the Government. He makes no charge unless successful in obtaining the patent, and his fees are less than those of any other first-class and responsible agency in the United States. We can, from personal acquaintance, endorse and commend Mr. Connolly as a gentleman of honor and honesty and in every way worthy of confidence. Send for a circular to his address as given above.

A SON of Mr. Fred. Boch, aged about fourteen years, residing on West street, Allegheny, was thrown from a horse last evening, and was severely injured.

THE Baltimoreans visited the Allegheny Cemetery yesterday and were hospitably received and entertained by Mr. John Chislett, the accomplished superintendent.

IN the District Court actions for damages have been brought against John Riley by Wm. Bratt and Wm Tatnell, for alleged malicious prosecution and false imprisonment.

AT Port Royal station on the Connellsville Railroad, yesterday, a coal train came in collision with a wrecker train, demolishing engine No. 13. Fortunately no one was hurt.

ANNA DEDIG, a little girl, was knocked down and run over by a carriage on Anderson street, Allegheny, Tuesday evening. Dr. Hazelet attended the case. She is not seriously hurt.

THE funeral of the late and lamented Prof. John J. Taggart of the Moorhead school house was largely attended yesterday. The deceased was widely known, and wherever known was highly respected.

THE concerts in the Park will be continued during the summer months, the Park Commission having so decided. The next concert will be given Saturday evening in the North East Park by the Great Western Band.

AT THE ELECTION for Directors for the Pittsburgh Loan Bank, the following Directors were elected: Samuel B. Cluley, Matthew Bronkaw, James F. Wray, George W. Wilson, W. C. Dean, Thomas Hunter. This Bank will go into operation as soon as a desirable building can be obtained.

THE PUBLIC EXAMINATION of the pupils of the Deaf and Dumb School of this city will take place this afternoon at the Duquesne School House, between one and three o'clock. The exercises will be of an interesting character. The public are invited to witness the evidence of the progress of the pupils.

IT was reported yesterday that Kitty Chambers, the colored girl who was seriously burned by the explosion of a can of kerosene oil at the house of Mr. Rush, in the Seventh ward, had died of her injuries. The Coroner had received no notice of the fact up to last evening, and no inquest had been held at last accounts.

LAST evening about nine o'clock, an alarm of fire was struck from box 3, Allegheny. The alarm was caused by sparks issuing from the window of a new building on Beaver avenue. Tinners had been engaged in putting up spouting, and left fire in their charcoal furnace. The wind caused the sparks to fly, and hence the alarm.

MR. JOHN MULHOLLAND, of the firm of J. & J. B. Mulholland, engine builders on Fifth avenue, was driving out on the hill near Mt. Oliver Tuesday, when his horse became fractious and fell over the hill. Mr. Mulholland was severely injured and the horse killed instantly. The animal was valued at five hundred dollars.

MR. ADAM WALTERS, of Indiana township, in this county, has left at our office a cluster of heads of wheat grown on his estate. The variety is that known as the "Michigan Mixed." Mr. Walters has sixteen acres of this wheat nearly ripe for the harvest. We wish our farmers could see the specimen before us. The heads are of unusual size and weight, and present the appearance of a partial hybred of bearded and smooth wheat. It will occur to any experienced farmer that if this wheat stands thickly on the ground, the yield could scarcely be less than forty or fifty bushels to the acre. All who have seen the crop as it stands, have expressed amazement at the richness of the promised yield, and numerous applications have been made for seed.

Amusements.

THE NEW OPERA HOUSE.—Dan Bryants' Minstrel troupe last night, attracted one of the largest and most fashionable audiences of the season. Among the visitors were Hon. Reverdy Johnston, Hon. Montgomery Blair and other distinguished guests from Baltimore. The performance was very fine, and much aboov the ordinary minstrel performance. To-night there will be an entire change of programme.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The Jane Coombs Company last night appeared in "London Assurance" to a full house comprised of the best people of our city. Of the performance of the company in this splendid comedy we have already had something to say, and last night only strengthened the belief that Miss Coombs, Mr. Bradley, Mr. Robinson and Mrs. Lanergan in the leading parts cannot be excelled. We noticed among the audience not a few who were present at the representation of the piece at the Opera House, and also observed that these persons were as much pleased with its rendition as on the former occasion. Miss Coombs' "Lady Gay Spanker" is a magnificent piece of acting, full of fire and life, but at the same time stamped with the peculiar lady like, gentle, natural and easy acting which characterizes her in everything she essays.

To-night the "Honeymoon" will be produced. Those who enjoyed the rendition of this piece last week, will many of them be glad to see it repeated, and those who were not so fortunate as to witness it, should not fail to be present to-night. For the credit of Pittsburgh it is necessary that the houses at the Academy this week should be good. Thus far such has been the case, and if the merits of the company are generally known, this week's receipts will exceed those of any week in the annals of the house.

TREASURER CONKLING of the Opera House, will take a benefit at the New Opera House on the eve of July 4th, on which occasion the great histrionic artist, Mr. Frederick Robinson, who has contributed so much to the Coombs' entertainment, will appear in the Shakesperian tragedy of Hamlet. In this role, Mr. Robinson has won great praise from the leading critics of Europe and America, and much anxiety is manifested to see and hear him in the part.

THE COURTS.

Yesterday's Proceedings.

QUARTER SESSIONS—JUDGE STOWE.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Franz Fonjar, Matthias Fuchik, Joseph Wokacz, Martin Ottis, Joseph Waverka and Wensel Newmefar was taken up. These parties, all Bohemians, were indicted for larceny. It was alleged that they visited the house of Joseph Wiezka and carried off a bank book and some money belonging to the "Slavonska Lipa," a Bohemian beneficial society. The jury found a verdict of not guilty.

August Meyers was indicted for committing an assault upon his wife, Eva Meyers. When his case was called up he entered a plea of guilty. The Court sentenced defendant to pay a fine of twenty dollars and to undergo ten days' imprisonment in jail.

Henry Langlitz was charged, in three indictments, with selling liquor without license The jury found a verdict of not guilty in each case, and directed that the costs be paid by the county.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Johnny Newell, indicted for mayhem, was then taken up. Newell, it will be remembered, is charged with biting off the ear of officer Johnson, one of Mayor Brush's police. The case was tried a few days since, but the jury, after remaining out over night, failed to agree and was discharged. The case was called for a second trial, and occupied but a short time. There were no new facts developed. The jury, after a brief absence, returned a verdict of guilty in the manner and form as indicted, but recommended the defendant to the mercy of the Court. Newell was remanded for sentence.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

In this Court, before Judges Sterrett and Collier, the argument list is still up, and will not be concluded this week.

EDUCATIONAL.

Corner Stone Laying of the Springfield Public School House Twelfth Ward.

The corner stone of this building was laid yesterday with appropriate ceremonies. There were in attendance pupils from the Washington, Lawrence, Howard, O'Hara and Ralston sub-district schools, which, with the pupils of the Springfield district, numbered about seven hundred.

The citizens of the Twelfth ward turned out in large numbers, thus evidencing by their presence the interest they take in their school. The ceremonies were of an impressive and pleasing character Prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Phillips and addresses delivered by the Rev. William Greenough, Pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church; Geo. J. Luckey, Esq., City Superintendent, and Wm. Creery, Esq., Superintendent of Schools of Baltimore City. The exercises were enlivened by the singing of appropriate songs prepared for the occasion, conducted by the pupils of the Springfield School, under the direction of Prof. J. M. Darling.

A copper box was deposited in the stone. In this box were placed copies of the morning papers, coin and currency now in use, and documents giving the history and standing of the schools of the city and State.

The honor of laying the stone was conferred on Miss Hettie Messick, the pupil of the Grammar Department, who had been the most regular in attendance, of correct deportment, and who had attained the greatest number of merits for diligence in study. The young lady was presented with a silver trowel by the Principal Mr. Wm. R. Ford, which she will no doubt prize, and preserve in remembrance of the event.

Fourteenth Ward School Property, of Fifth Avenue, by Auction.

This is the large and very desirable improved property, situate opposite upper end of the Gazzam property, at first turn of Fifth avenue, beyond Soho Bridge. The lot is over 137 feet front on Fifth avenue, and of a double depth through to Murphy street. The spacious school house improvement is a two story brick, which can easily be changed into dwellings, or adapted for manufacturing use. Also, a two story brick dwelling on the premises. The commanding situation of this property is indisputable. No newspaper rhetoric is needed to present its attractiveness. The improvement of Fifth avenue, now that the old turnpike has been purchased out by the city, will give a new and vigorous incentive to property in this direction. The opening of Forbes street, the erection of Fifth avenue bridge over to Birmingham, and completion of Fifth avenue market, will all contribute largely to an immediately increased value of property situate between these points and Oakland. It is only needed to familiarize the mind with this location to perceive the certainty for a good investment, and realize the excellent situation of this very large property. See McIlwaine's auction advertisement for particulars of the sale on premises next Saturday afternoon.

Interesting to All.

The monthly clearing out sale of pianos and organs at S. Hamilton & Co.'s, 51 Fifth avenue is attracting the attention of the entire public, and no wonder when you take into consideration the quality of the instruments and the incredible low prices, and the terms are so easy that no one can fail to be suited. No wonder they are pleased with the adoption of quick sales and small profits plan, as we saw them sell seven new instruments yesterday in a very short time, and still the people were coming; and our advice to all in need of a good instrument, either pianos or organs, is go at once to S. Hamilton & Co.'s, as they are determined to run off their entire stock before July 1, to make preparations for their coming orders, and if you wish to save from ten to twenty per cent. on your purchase you had better go soon, as from present indications they will not have a supply on hand.

They have also a large assortment of good second hand organs and pianos, of every conceivable style and make, which they are selling at a great sacrifice, to make room.

Be sure and call for a bargain at
S. HAMILTON & Co.'s,

THE CITY'S GUESTS.

Their Movements Yesterday—A Test of the Paid Fire Department, &c., &c.

Our Maryland visitors, that is to say those who remained in the city yesterday, were entertained in various ways. Among the sights presented to them was a time test of our Fire Department.

On invitation of the Fire Commissioners of Pittsburgh, in answer to the request of the Fire Commissioners of Baltimore, a party of about fifty of the excursionists witnessed the workings of our paid system. At one minute before ten o'clock an alarm was struck from Box 17, at Sixth avenue and Wood street, calling to that point the engines of the Second district. At just one minute after the hour engine No. 6 (Vigilant) was with its hose carriage on the ground, and in just four minutes from the time the alarm was sounded was throwing water on the roof of a building near by. Engine No. 1 (Eagle) was on the ground in just two and a half minutes, while No. 2 (Niagara,) from the house on Penn street, near Seventeenth street, was at the spot and nearly ready for service in four minutes, although it was delayed somewhat at the railroad crossing on Penn street. Hook and Ladder No 1 was in readiness 1½ minutes after the alarm was struck. The trial seemed to give satisfaction to those present, and the comments passed on the promptness as well as the general appearance of the department were very complimentary.

During the afternoon, the Allegheny Parks, the Soldiers' Monument, a number of manufactories, and other points were visited. Last evening many of our guests attended the Academy of Music and the Opera House.

About one hundred and twenty of the Baltimoreans and Cumberlanders left for home yesterday morning at six o'clock, while sixty others went home via Wheeling. Those who remained will leave this morning at six o'clock on the Connellsville Railroad.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.

AN attempt at a joke resulted fatally to a genteman named Ford, on Leading creek, Virginia, last week. Mr. Ford happened near a Mr. Hornet's house with a panther skin, and seeing a little boy, about twelve or fourteen years of age, a son of Mr. Hornet, in a skirt of woods near the house, donned the skin with the intention of frightening the little fellow, but as soon as the boy saw what he supposed to be a panther, he ran to the house and took down his father's rifle and went in pursuit of it. After going a little way he espied it, and resting the rifle on a fence, fired. The man panther gave a dying shriek, and, with a convulsive spasm, fell over mortally wounded. Ford lingered two days and died.

THE Jacksonville (Ala.) Republican in an article headed, "A Horrible Murder," says: "Probably by the time this paper is circulated John Bordon, an esteemed citizen of this portion of the country, a resident of Cleburne county, and the father of the principal of Oxford College, will have breathed his last. He was the victim of one of the foulest attempts at murder we have ever read of. He was known to have in his possession about one thousand dollars that he was taking to Rome with him. The instrument used was a club. The supposed murderer is a negro. He was captured once, but escaped. The last heard from him his pursuers were close on him with a pack of 'negro dogs'"

THE Memphis Avalanche of Sunday says: "A few days since notice was made of an outrage that had been perpetrated in Gibson county, by a band of masked men, who took a negro, charged with poisoning a horse, from an officer and shot him. Information was received in the city yesterday of the arrest of five men who are supposed to have been connected with the outrage. Three other men, who are supposed to have been directly connected with the murder, having fled the county, going to Texas, it is supposed. An investigation has been entered into by the authorities, and every endeavor will be made to ferret out and bring to punishment the guilty parties. Among those arrested and now undergoing an examination is the man Regan, at whose house the murder was committed."

A BOARDING HOUSE keeper in New Orleans, named Thomas Winchell, killed L. E. Lyons, a boarder with him, for a debt of not more than thirty or forty dollars. The murder was committed week before last, but owing to a statement of Lyons before his death, "that the deed was committed by a party of roughs in a fight, that he and his friends had with them," the whole affair was so enveloped in a mystery, that only after extraordinary exertions on the part of the police has the real culprit been brought to justice. It seems that even on his death bed the pride of young Lyons would not allow him to expose his assailant by acknowledging that he had been unmercifully beaten because he could not pay his board. The testimony, however, conclusively proves Winchell to be the perpetrator of the bloody deed.

China.

In a sermon recently preached at San Francisco the Bishop of Victoria said that the Chinese Government had given to the representatives of foreign governments in Pekin a dispatch the object of which is prejudice the credit, stability and extension of all Christian missions in China, Protestant as well as Roman Catholic. In this document the Chinese Government demands that the missionaries residing beyond the limits of a consular port shall be subject to the judicial decision and control of the local mandarins instead of the nearest consul, and that all missions shall be supervised by native officials appointed for that purpose. In case of a riot by a native mob no compensation for property destroyed shall be demanded of the place where the trouble occurred. All foreign ladies shall be sent home, since by their teaching they disturb the peace and retirement of Chinese female society, and no native women shall be permitted to attend meetings for Christian worship. No misionary shall receive more than forty-five converts; no native children shall attend Christian schools, and a public office shall be established for the registration of all baptisms and the recording the history, residence and condition of all persons wishing to become Christians. Evidently there is a mild desire on the part of the Celestial Emperor to get rid of the new proselytizing religion.
